Wheat running seven to 30 bushels per acre

The wheat harvest is going swiftly and will be over before we know it.

Word from the elevator here in Brewster it's running between seven and 30 bushels per acre. The weight is good and moisture is low.

We've had some wonderful rains the past couple weeks, which will help the fall crops.

Congratulations to Stacy and Anita Owens on the adoption of their new son, Tristen Allen Owens. Grandparents are L.J. and Sondra

Steven Jay and Donna Garrett of Edmonton, Alberta, Canada have been visiting his father Marvin Garrett and wife Mary Ruth, also relatives in Colby. While here, they attended the graveside services for Steven J. Garrett Jr. on Wednesday, June 21., at Beulah Cemetery in Colby. Steven Jr. passed away in Roseburg, Ore., on Dec 16, 2005, at the age of 41. He was the grandson of Marvin and the late Betty Garrett and he lived with them from infancy.

I have been asked by the family to put in a short obituary: Steven Jesse Garrett was born June 2, 1964, in Rosebury, Ore., the son of Steven Jay and Kathy (Hubble) Garrett. As an infant, he went to live with his grandparents Marvin and Betty Garrett and attended school in Heartland.

Woman attends sorority convention

Debbie Lucas represented Chapter Z from Goodland at the 104th convention of Kansas State Chapter PEO Friday to Sunday, June 9 to 11, at Great Bend.

Carol Sweat, state president from Wallace, presided over about 250 delegates. The goal of PEO, founded in 1869 at Iowa Wesleyan College, Mount Pleasant, is to increase opportunities for higher education for women. The organization sponsors five projects, including the PEO Educational Loan Fund, Cottey College in Nevada, Mo, the PEO International Peace Scholarship, the PEO Program for Continuing Education, and PEO Scholar Awards. The Kansas Chapter has two of its own projects, Sunflower Grants and Kansas Cottey College Scholarships.

Sixteen PEO chapters from Cimarron, Dodge City, Elkhart,

Garden City, Great Bend, Hugoton, Lakin, Syracuse and Ulysses were hosts for the delegates, past presidents, standing committees and guests.

The program included a speech by Nancy Yamato, chairman of the board of the PEO Scholar Awards from Carson City, Nev.; a luncheon honoring 50-year members; and election and installation of officers.
