Where's the fish?

Cousins Eddie Emig, 65, and Gale Young, 66, showed the "catch" from a recent trip to Cedar Bluff Lake near Hays. The two men had fun fishing, but didn't come back with anything to use the cleaning board for said Monica Emig. "I saw them standing there and the thought "where's the fish." Fishing in the area has been down because of the low water. An explanation of the problems at Smoky Gardens is on Page 4. Photo by Monica Emig

Three head to Shrine Bowl

The 33rd annual Kansas Shrine Bowl will kick off shortly after 6 p.m. (Mountain Time) Saturday, July 29, in Carnie Smith Stadium at Pittsburg State University.

Goodland's Mark Starr will play for the West Team and be wearing No. 76. This will mark the third straight year a former Cowboy has played in the game. Jordan Bedore played in 2004 and Brock Lohr played last year in Manhattan. Bedore now plays for the Wildcats of Kansas State while Lohr will play for the Gorillas of Pittsburg State.

Starr is headed to Colorado State University in Fort Collins this fall to play football for the Rams.

His mother, Brenda, said her son has been practicing with the Rams, but was to return to Goodland Monday and after a few days at home offensive tackle. He made the secwill head to St. John's Military ond team in both positions as a jun-

Goodland explodes in third, wins

The Goodland Elks K-18 baseball team fell behind the Colby No. 2 team, 2-1, in the first inning Thursday, but Goodland exploded for 18 runs in the third to lead by 15, and went on to win 21-6.

Brandon Rome was the winning pitcher, giving up three hits, striking out three, walking six and hitting one batter in three innings.

Colby jumped out to a 2-1 lead in the first with runs scored by Jarrett Marker and Ethan Stickel. Goodland's run in the first was scored by Vance Johnson.

Goodland tied things up at 3-3 in the second with runs by Ben Waugh and David Murray. Colby's run was scored by Nathan Quagliano.

Colby regained the lead with three runs in the top of the third, scored by Brandon Gordon, Adam Weber and Sam Kendrick.

Gordon, the starting pitcher for Colby, was replaced in the third after giving up eight runs. Kale Arnberger faced 14 Goodland batters and gave up nine more runs. Arnberger was replaced by Sam Kendrick, who gave up a single to Waugh.

Goodland in the bottom of the third; he was hit by a pitch. Morris advanced to second when Adam Duell drew a walk. The runners advanced on a passed ball and Morris scored on a single by Murray.

That opened the floodgates, as Goodland batted around twice with every player scoring at least one run and most two. Goodland scored 18 runs with only two outs and 25 at bats.

Waugh, Morris, Duell and Murray each scored three runs, Johnson and Dillon Trachsel scored two, Kevin Amthor had three singles and scored two runs, Rome and Keagen Smith each scored one

The game was called after the third inning when Goodland had a 15-run lead.

Goodland had 11 hits and six errors, with three in the first and three in the second, but none in the third.

Colby had three hits and 22 errors with 15 in the third.
