miss us most of the time. My Child, Are you fashioning for yourself a life of comfort, a place where you can run away from reality? Listen. Do you hear it? Somewhere on the margins of your comfort zone there is a voice crying out to you, a voice too persistent to ignore. "Follow me," it keeps saying. "Follow me. Come away from the safe and the comfortable, the predictable and the socially correct. Follow me into a life of risk and challenge and high adventure, where the cost will be great but the rewards will be greater. Follow me, and I will make your existence count for more than comfort. I will lead you on narrow paths, up steep and rugged roads, into dangerous terrain. But I will give you weapons for the battle, I will fight beside you. And you will share my victory!" Come away and follow! God, Matthew 4:18-20, Luke 18:22-23.
