Fall sports underway

Balls are flying from hands, clubs and rackets as the Cowboys and Cowgirls fall seasons get going less than 10 days after the school year began.

The Cowgirls tennis team has already been to two meets and tied for first at both Cimarron and Phillipsburg.

Thursday the Cowgirls golf team opened at WaKeeney.

The Cowboys football team opens on the road at 6 p.m. on Friday at Atwood.

The Cowboys and Cowgirls cross country teams started their season at home with the Goodland Invitational on Thursday at Sugar Hills Golf Club.

The Cowgirls volleyball team hits the court at Max Jones Fieldhouse at 3:30 p.m. on Tuesday for a quad match with Burlington, Hays and Thomas More-Marian of Hays.

Cross Country

"I think we'll do really well," the said Richard Schwasinger coach the "new" coach, the 25-year assistant who stepped into the head coach position.

For the girls, he said, the race will be longer this season, 4 kilometers (nearly 2.5 miles) instead of 2 miles. The team is anchored by experienced runners and has several new ones with great potential, the coach said.

Eight boys and eight girls will put their feet to the trails at golf courses around the state this fall.

Returning from last year's team for the boys are Kerek Mason, senior, and Chris Geeseka, Toby Hurst and Dustin Pennington, juniors. For the girls are Whitney Dautel, senior, and Brittaney Medrano and Cassie Cooper, sophomores.

New faces for the guys are Chanuntuch Anutropibil, a senior foreign exchange student from Thailand; Douglas Eddleman, also a senior; and Bryan Gray and Dallas Price, sophomores.

For the girls are Stephanie Sheldon, senior; Hannah Blake, sophomore; and Precious Gonzales, Angie Medrano and Tanicia Arnold, freshmen. Michelle Smith, a sophomore, is the team's manager.

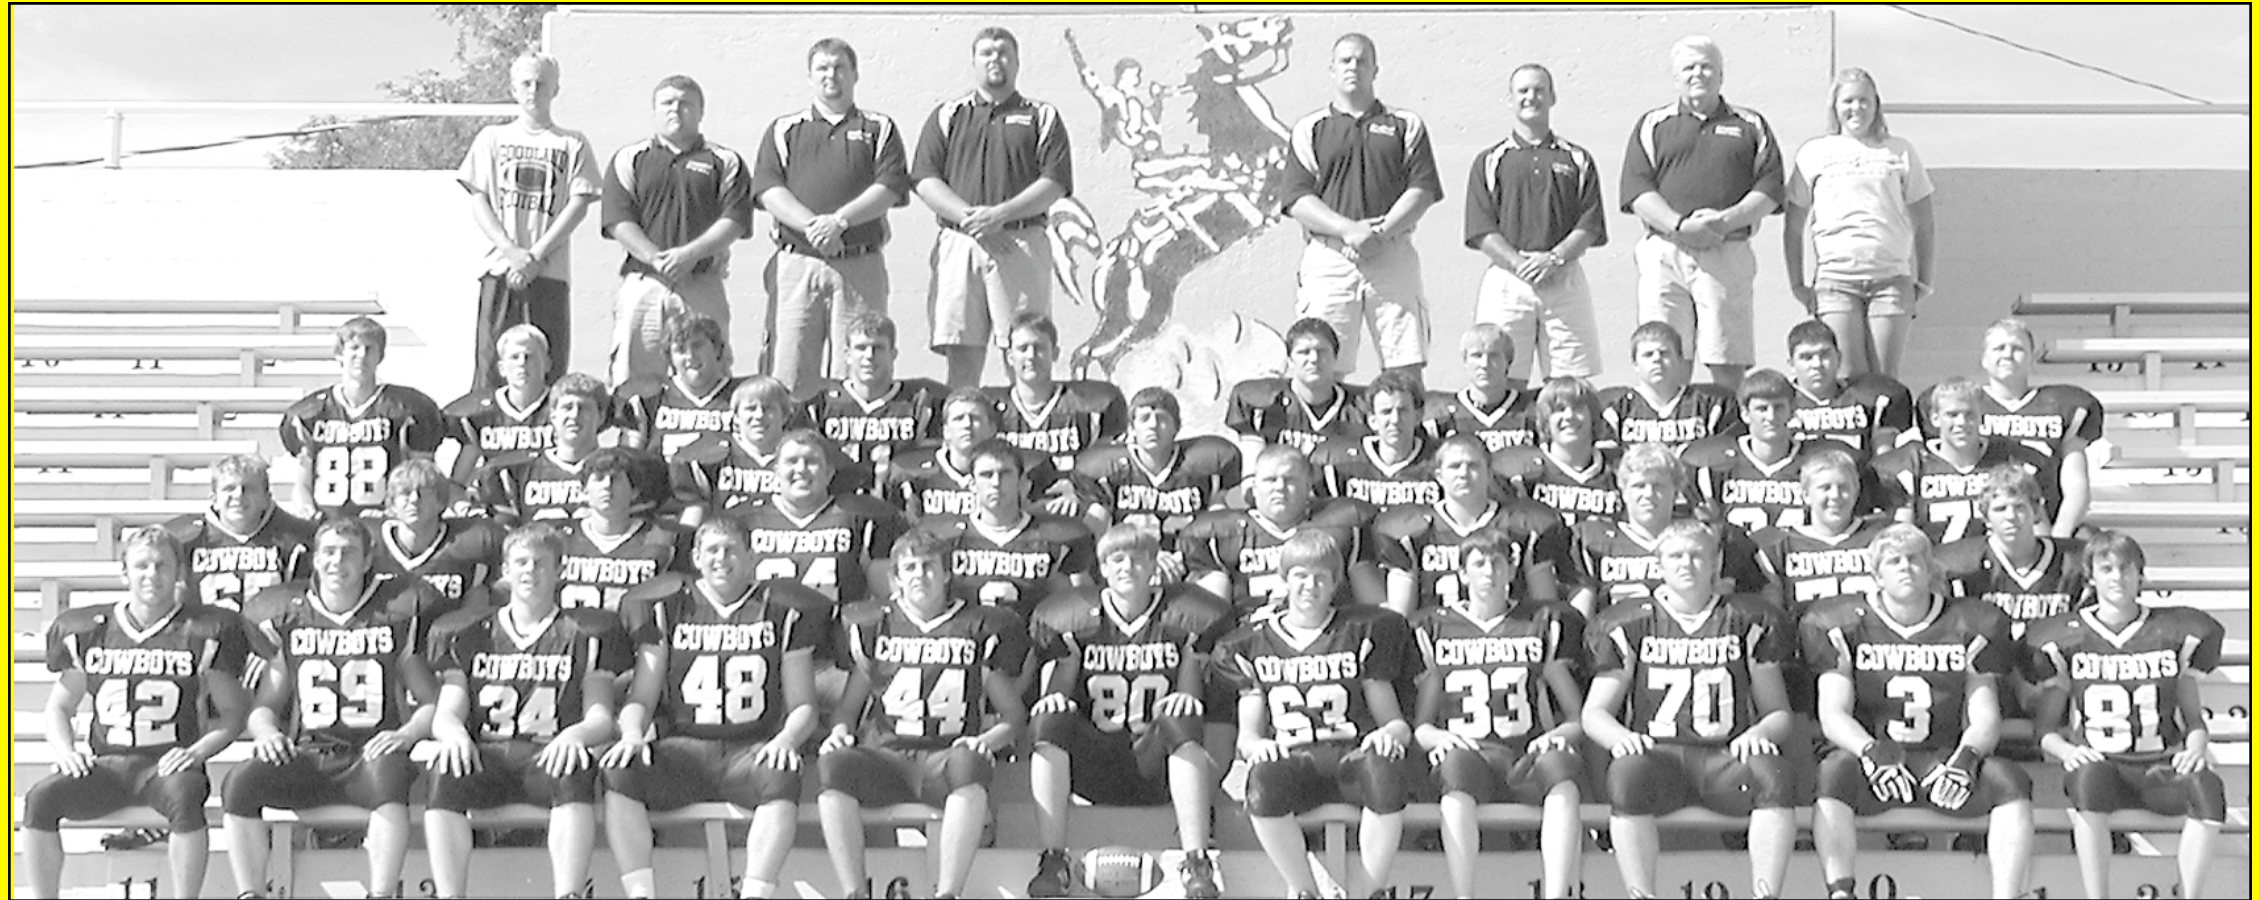

"It's really gonna be a neat bunch of kids," Schwasinger said. "We could do great things with them."

Schwasinger was assistant to Don Smith, who coached the team 27 years before taking the activities director position at the high school. Schwasinger will be assisted by Myron Tedford, who also will coach junior high cross country.

Mason will be the top gun for the boys, Schwasinger said; after competing all summer, he will be one of the top-ranked runners
