obituary

John Edward Wells

John Edward Wells, 74, Arvada, Colo., a 1950 Sherman Community High School graduate, died Wednesday, Aug. 9, 2006, at Thornton, Colo.

He was born July 18, 1932, at Ruleton. After graduating high school, he worked in the oil fields in Kansas, Colorado, New Mexico and Wyoming.

In 1953, he married Helen Kloberdanz, his wife of 27 years and mother of their five children. Shortly after they married, he was drafted into the Army and was stationed at Fort Hood, Texas. After serving two years, he was discharged and returned to the oil fields where he worked until 1965.

In 1965, he and Helen opened a sewing machine store in Sterling, Colo. In 1973, he moved to Denver, where he worked at the Coors brewery for 22 years before retiring. He was a member of the Elks Lodge, liked to travel and loved to garden. He enjoyed retirement.

Survivors include two sons, Dennis Wells Thornton, Colo., and Rodney (Lori) Wells of Arvada; three daughters, Karen (Tom) Rigli of Westminster, Colo., Cindy (Rick) Caraway of Thornton, and LuAnn (Kevin) Grout of Denver; a sister, Lucille (Harry) Howe of La Habra Heights, Calif.; three former wives; 12 grandchildren; and six great-grandchildren.

Services were Saturday, Aug. 11, 2006, at the Bowling Family Chapel in Arvada, with the Rev. Joe McNulty presiding.

Brewster's Biggest Losers hold barbecue

Brewster's Biggest Losers met Monday evening, Aug. 21, at RDC's for their barbecue and awards. Individual winner was Shannon Rice. Shannon lost 23 percent of his body-weight. Second place went to Coleen Rall at 22 percent.

Teams of the Sure Fine Fat Boys and the 5 F's tied for 1st place at 43 percent. Team members are Shane Holm, Jeff and Tonya Gray, Stacy Edmundson and Gene Schoenberger. The 5 F's are Ed and Toni Ackerman, Fred and Lisa Jueneman and Coleen Rall. The Reiser's team placed second at 32 percent. Team members are Greg and Vickie Beiser, Shannon and Darla Rice and Jessica House. A total of 420.5 pounds was lost by 28 team members in 4 months.

There are plans of doing it again this winter. Congratulations to the losers.

the weekend.

On Aug. 21st, nine United Methodist Women members and friends went to the Prairie Senior Living Complex in Colby to visit some of the residents who live there: Clarice Blakely, Troy Dillinger, (a Bird City friend of Lola Marrs') Lily Plummer and her sister Lulu Grady. Lily is the mother of Larry Chambers. Everyone enjoyed the visiting and ice cream and cookies.

This is one of the women's activities of reaching out to our loved ones. In April we made a visit at Infinita of Colby to visit Maxine Moore, Jean Hutton and Gene Whittaker.

Marion and Coleen Crumine of Brewster had a big surprise Sunday and Keaton and new baby sister Sara dropped in. Daughter Carolyn and husband Brian Somers of Brewster and son Willard, wife Marla and granddaughter Melissa also came. They all brought in dinner and enjoyed a good visit. What a great day when you don't have to cook!

We at the senior center had a great group of 18 for dinner and Bingo last Friday. Come anytime and enjoy the fun and visiting. You are always a winner of something at Bingo, and it doesn't cost anything to play.

We want to keep Maxine Moore and Ron Ribordy in our thoughts and prayers at this time.

Dear child of mine, There are still some things about yourself that you have not accepted. You view your abilities and assets with harsh and critical eyes and keep a constant record of your "limitations." You murmur and say, "If only I could be like this person or that person!"

Why do you insist on being your own worst enemy? Why do you question the judgment of the God who made you as you are? Does the clay say to the potter, "What are you doing? How dare you shape me this way?" No, the clay does not give advice to the potter. And neither are you to resist my design for your life.

I, your God and your Creator, have fashioned you for my purposes. Humble your heart.. Embrace my way. Give thanks.

Your own God. Isaiah 45:9.
