Paul Franklin Frye

Paul Franklin Frye, 88, a Kanorado native and retired mail carrier and handyman, died Sunday, Sept. 3, 2006, at Park West Plaza in Wichita.

He was born April 3, 1918, in a sod house south of Kanorado, one of four children of Lewis and Maude (Kiper) Frye, and graduated from Kanorado High School in 1935.

In December 1940, he married Evelyn Darlene Davis in Boulder, Colo. They had three children. She died in September of 1980 after a battle with Lou Gehrig's Disease.

In 1941, he began serving in the Army with Company I from Burlington. He served during World War II in New Guinea and the Philippines, and eventually was commissioned a second lieutenant.

Mr. Frye lived for many years in Kanorado and then in Stratton, Colo. He was known on his mail route, and also knew how to fix almost anything.

If he wasn't working, he was gardening. He loved flowers, especially dahlias. Other things he enjoyed were golf, dancing and hunting. He loved to read and learn about things and places.

Mr. Frye had a passion for politics, football and baseball, and never missed a game.

After retiring, he worked at Winn Hardware. He was a member of the Goodland Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Goodland Elks Lodge.

Also preceding him in death were his parents and two sisters.

Survivors include two daughters, Lea Cramer of Kansas City, Mo., and Lou (David) Griffith of Wichita; a son, Mike (JoAnn) Frye of Wichita; a brother, Ray Frye of Mandan, N.D.; his companion, Netha Kindred of Stratton; six grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

Services were held Friday, Sept. 8, 2006, at the Kanorado United Methodist Church with Pastor Leonard Cox officiating, with burial and military honors at the Kanorado Cemetery.

Memorials may be made to the ALS Foundation, the Stratton Ambulance Service or the Kanorado Senior Center in care of the Bank of Burlington, 410 14th, Burlington, Colo. 80807.

Arrangements were handled by Love Funeral Home, Burlington. Condolences can be left at www.lovefuneralhomes.com.

She was born Aug. 15, 1923, near St. Peter, where she attended the St. Peter Catholic School. She graduated from Trego Community High School in WaKeeney.

On Feb. 12, 1946, she married George Malsom in the St. Peter Catholic Church. They lived in Quinter and moved to WaKeeney in 1947. She was a bookkeeper for the Triangle Truck Stop in WaKeeney before retiring in 1980.

She enjoyed hand quilting, sewing, gardening, reading, playing cards and Bingo. She was a member of the Christ the King Catholic Church in WaKeeney and its Altar Society, the WaKeeney Veterans of Foreign Wars Post Auxiliary, the WaKeeney Fraternal Order of Eagles Auxiliary and the Eta Nu Sorority.

Preceding her in death was a grandson, Bret Hensley; and two sisters, Helen Knoll and Mary Spies.

Other survivors include her husband; another son, Bill Malsom of Bartlesville, Okla.; two daughters, Donna (Myron) Schmidt of Liberty, Mo., and Susan (Duane) Hearting of Ogallah; four brothers, Ben (Margaret) Richmeier of Thornton, Colo., Joe (Ramilda) Richmeier of Westminster, Colo., Gerald (Carol) Richmeier of Grand Junction, Colo., and Ronald (Maria) Richmeier of Aurora, Colo.; four sisters, Julia Scheck of Westminster, Lydia (George) Denning of Norton, Armella (George) Ashworth of Mound City and Francis (Marvin) Nimz of WaKeeney; 12 grandchildren; and 11 great-grandchildren.

Services were Friday, Sept. 8, 2006, at Christ the King Catholic Church in WaKeeney with Father Donald F. Pfannenstiel officiating. Burial was in the Kansas Veterans Cemetery there.

Memorials may be made to the church or Trego County Lemke Memorial Hospital in care of Schmitt Funeral Home, 336 N. 12th, WaKeeney, Kan. 67672.

Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary expecting district president's inspection

The Ladies Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars of Goodland met Thursday at the VFW hall with 10 members present. President Charlene Fenner presided over the meeting.

Ninth District President Kathy Kuhn will make her official inspection on Thursday, Oct. 5, with a potluck dinner held at 5:30 p.m. All members are encouraged to attend. The auxiliary will hold initiation proceedings for new member Marie Hurst.

The national president Linda Meader is visiting Kansas Monday through Wednesday. She is visiting auxiliaries in Leavenworth, Junction City and Abilene.

Community service projects completed by the auxiliary during the past month included serving several class parties for the Sherman County Alumni Association, serving Meals-on-Wheels, serving a lunch at the primary elections, donating clothing and other items to the soldier's home at Fort Dodge, serving funeral dinners, having a booth at the fair promoting the benefits of being an auxiliary member and collecting used postage stamps, Campbell's soup labels and pop taps.

Upcoming projects include a donation to the Kansas Veterans of Foreign Wars Endowment Association for state scholarships, gathering clothing for Fort Dodge, making Christmas money holders for Veterans Administration hospitals and collecting items for the Homeless Veterans Standdown.

Upcoming events include the Eisenhower Vigil in Abilene Saturday, Oct. 14; the Voice of Democracy speech-writing contest for ninth through 12th graders on the theme "Freedom's Challenge;" the Patriot's Pen writing contest for sixth through eighth graders on the theme "Citizenship in America;" and the Patriot Art contest for ninth through 12th graders with an art project dealing with a patriotic theme.

Life members of the National Home Foundation are encouraged to use the ballot they received to vote for the Kansas candidate, Ray Warren, for trustee.

Mary Ann Elliott told the group the University of Kansas Medical Center will have a team offering breast exams, prostate checks and bone density tests at Dr. Sid Unruh's office on Saturday, Sept. 23.

JoAnn Wahrman reported on the Ninth District Mid-Summer meeting held in Grinnell and the National Convention held in Reno, Nev.

Any lady in the community who is the wife, mother, daughter, granddaughter or sister of a person who has served in an area of conflict overseas is eligible for membership in the auxiliary. Those eligible are invited to attend the next meeting at 5:30 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 5.
