obituaries

Hattie Marie Ray

Hattie Marie Ray, 87, Stratton, Colo., grandmother of Cynthia Butts of Goodland, died Saturday, Sept. 16, 2006.

She was born June 2, 1919, in Stratton, the daughter of John and Edna Bohl, and was raised in Stratton.

In her 20s, she met George Hotter of Durango, Colo., and moved there to help him raise four children from his first marriage.

She was a cook and a restaurant owner, and cooking was one of her favorite activities.

In 1974, she bought the Roadrunner Bar and Grill. Fishing and camping were among of her favorite pastimes.

Preceding her in death were her parents, her husband and two brothers, Martin and Robert Bohl.

Other survivors include a daughter, Pam Smith of Stratton; a son, Matthew (Sheryl) Hotter of Hesperia, Calif.; a brother, Edward Bohl of Denver; a sister, Nellie Rafferty of Denver; six other grandchildren; and nine great-grandchildren.

Services were Wednesday, Sept. 20, 2006, at the Stratton Church of God, with burial in Claremont Cemetery there.

A memorial fund is being established in her name at the First National Bank, 141 Colorado Ave., Stratton, Colo. 80836.

Arrangements were handled by Love Funeral Home in Burlington. Condolences may be left at www.lovetofuneralhomes.com.

Susan I. Disney

Susan I. Disney, 74, Denver, a former Goodland child care provider, died Tuesday, Sept. 19, 2006.

She was born July 17, 1932, in Hays, the daughter of Kepple and Frances (Littleton) Disney.

Though Disney never married or had her own children, she enjoyed caring for many Goodland children.

She was also a member of Job's Daughters and served a term as Honored Queen.

She was a life member of the Order of the Eastern Star.

Preceding her in death were her parents and a sister, Connie Witzel.

Survivors include a sister, Kay Ward of Denver, and many nieces and nephews.

Memorial services will be at 2 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 26, 2006, at Koons Chapel in Goodland with Pastor Ted Amos officiating.

Memorials may be made to the Parkinson Association of the Rockies in care of the funeral home.

Reception planned for leadership class

The Leadership Sherman County class of 2006-2007 will be introduced at a public reception at 6 p.m. Tuesday at the Ennis-Handy House.

Class members include Ben Brandvick and Brian Linin, who work at Frontier Equity Exchange.

Class members include Ben Brandvick and Brian Linin, who work at Frontier Equity Exchange.

This year's co-chairs, Kris Yost and Becky Schulte, said the committee was pleased with the applicants.

The class will have eight day-long sessions covering major issues facing Sherman County, including education, media, agriculture, economic development, city and county government and law enforcement.

The group will travel to Topeka to view state government operations, including a visit with Rep. Jim Morrison and Sen. Ralph Ostermeyer.

Airman has graduated from basic training

Airman Jared R. Simmering has graduated from basic training at Lackland Air Force Base near San Antonio, Texas.

He is a grandson of Grace Simmering and Norma Emig, both of Goodland.

During the six weeks of training, he studied the Air Force mission, organization and military customs and courtesies; performed drill and ceremony marches; and had physical training, rifle marksmanship, field training exercises and special training in human relations.

Airmen who complete basic training earn credits toward an associate degree through the Community College of the Air Force.

Jared is the son of Dan and Angie Simmering of Colby, and a 2006 graduate of Colby High School.
