Whitmore in 120.

Syracuse took first place with 370 strokes, followed by Holcomb with 406 and Ulysses with 417. Lakin was fifth in 442, Oakley sixth at 486 and the Dodge City junior varsity had 479.

Other schools competing were Scott City, Ulysses' second team, Liberal, Colby and Hugoton.

Ulysses is a good course, said Coach Connie Livengood, with sand around holes and water around a couple. The greens are lightning fast, she said, the fairways are narrow and most are lined with trees. Five of the nine holes have out of bounds on the right side. It is a great course, she said, in good condition and most of the greens are elevated.

The girls played each hole twice, and strokes from the two rounds were added together. The girls' scores can be better, and they know that, the coach said. It is just a matter of time, of coming together, and who really wants to do well. Every day, the golfers learn something that makes them a little better, she said.

"I felt that the two freshmen who went, Natasha and Amber Douglas, did a great job," Livengood said.

The Cowgirls will play at Lakin at 8:30 a.m. Saturday and at Syracuse at 8:30 a.m. Thursday.
