but not the work.

Joan Hartley broke her hip Sept. 19 and is in the Hays hospital.

Gordon Berry had surgery on his shoulder and is home and on the mend.

Those in the community that we need to keep in our prayers are Zelma Kinkade, Ron Ribordy, Troy Dillinger, Wayne Luckert, Coleen Crumrine, Joan Hartley, Gordon Berry and Dale Hudson.

I'm sorry there was no Brewster News in the paper last week. I can blame it on my Uncle Rodney and cousin Paula. They sent me plane tickets to fly to Portland, Ore., and visit with them in Salem for a week. What a wonderful fun-filled week it was. Saw lots of things — it's so beautiful up there — and did lots of visiting.

Just an early reminder: on Tuesday, Nov. 7, Election Day, the Brewster Senior Center will be closed. They will be voting at the center that day instead of the City Hall. So it will be opened for voting only.

The Men's Prayer Breakfast was scheduled for 7 a.m. Saturday at the center.

My dear one, You spend tremendous energy on trying to be a good Christian. But self-effort will never produce the completed saint. Instead, spend that same amount of time and effort just sitting at my feet.

Read my Word. Listen to my voice. Absorb my truth. Let the lifeblood of my gospel begin to flow through your veins, and you will begin to be remade. A person will most surely become like those with whom he or she keeps company. Trust me. I am faithful, and I will never ask of you what I am not willing to perform in your life. I will do it! God. I Thessalonians 5:23-24.

music club news

The Goodland Federated Music Club met Monday at the Carnegie Arts Center. President Linda Lucas called the meeting to order at 7:00 p.m. and welcomed guest performer Shane Spanier.

The club members sang the state and local theme songs and repeated the Collect. Martha Gunderson introduced the Hymn of the Month and led the singing of "Come, Ye Faithful, Raise the Strain."

Words of the hymn were written by John of Damascus and translated by John Mason Neale. Arthur Sullivan wrote the English words. The songs were accompanied by Eva Lou Selby.

Linda Koons called the roll. Nine members were present: Birkley Barnes, Melanie Biel, Martha, Linda Koons, Linda Lucas, Sammie Mills, Sharon Palmquist, Eva Lou and Deanne Spanier.

Eva Lou, program chair, introduced the program, "October Stars." Sharon read a poem for Marlyn Mangus, who could not be at the meeting: "Song at the Beginning of Autumn," by Elizabeth Jennings.

Melanie, flute, played "Ashokan Farewell," by Ray Unger. She was accompanied on the piano by Martha.

Sammie, piano, played "Autumn Nocturne" by Joses Myrow, arranged by Dick Hyman. She followed that with another rendition of the song in its original form.

Sharon and Eva Lou did a vocal duet of "Catch a Falling Star," by Paul Vance and Lee Pockriss, arranged by Howley Ades. Melanie accompanied on the piano.

Concluding the program, Deanne, clarinet, played "Fantasia and Rondo," by Carl Maria von Weber. She was accompanied by her son, Shane Spanier.

A short business meeting followed the program. Secretary Linda Koons read the minutes of the August meeting. There was no treasurer's report because the treasurer was not present.

A discussion of club matters followed. Four members plan to attend the Northwest District Meeting of the Kansas Federation of Music Clubs on Saturday.

The meeting adjourned and hostesses Sammie and Sharon served delicious refreshments of apple sauce cake, apple cider, nuts and chocolate candy.

The next meeting is at 7 p.m. Monday, Nov. 6, at Wheat Ridge Acres. Hostesses are Martha Gunderson and Pat Schiefen. The theme of the November meeting is "American Kaleidoscope," and it is "Dedicated to the Parade of American Music." It will also be "guest night."

Submitted by Birkley A. Barnes, publicity chair.
