Flatlander contest

"Van Gogh at Sunrise," by Cary Amos (above) was the second-place photo in the adult category of the People's Choice Awards in the Flatlander Photo Contest at the Carnegie Arts Center. "Bicycle," by Chloe Goodwin, (left) was second in the youth category. "Bumble Bee," by Elaine Felver, (below), and an untitled photo of an elk by Lawrence Tedford also were in the exhibit. Tedford said he took the picture on vacation in Canada in 1984.
