

Brewster, Wallace volleyball players get league honors

Three Brewster High School volleyball players won all-league honors in the Western Kansas Liberty League with another Lady Bulldog earning honorable mention.

Seniors Avery Schultz, Dani Bedore and Audrey Hoyt were among the 18 players on the all-league roster.

This is the second straight year for Schultz and Hoyt. Senior Megan Allen was one of six to get honorable mention.

The Bulldogs finished the season

35-6 after going 0-3 in pool play at the state Class 1A championships last month at Fort Hays State University.

Wallace County High of Sharon Springs had four of its players on the team: seniors Natalie Elder, Bracey Fisher and Nikki Welsh and junior Cricket Short.

The team made up of players from Grinnell and Wheatland high schools also had four players on the all-league roll. Jill Kennedy and Chelsie Wolf and juniors Trisha Tholen and Meagan Weaver.

Three Lady Coyotes from Weskan High, all sophomores, made the team: Danica Cox, Raney Okeson and Cassondra Welsh.

Making the team from Golden Plains High in Rexford were seniors Megan Juenemann and Katelyn Spreser.

Senior Shannon Haug made the team from Healy High, as did sophomore Amberly Gfeller from Triplains in Winona.

Other earning honorable mention were seniors Megan Cavenee and Teresa Tarman of Greeley County High in Tribune; seniors Aubrey Kehlbeck and Jessica Marshall of Cheylin High in Bird City; and junior Ashley Davis of Healy.

Both Bedore of Brewster and Welsh of Wallace County made the Kansas Volleyball Association's Class 1A State All-Tournament Team.

Former Cowgirl scores 16

Former Goodland Cowgirl Jayci Stone scored a game-high 16 points to lead the University of Alaska

Anchorage to an 80-36 basketball win over the visiting Cougars of Mid-Continent College from Kentucky.

With the score tied at 4, the Seawolves scored 19 straight points for a 23-4 lead. Alaska-Anchorage led 46-15 at halftime, then outscored the Cougars 34-21 in the second half to win 80-36.

The Seawolves, now 2-0 for the season, take the court again next Tuesday against the U.S. Air Force Academy in the opening round of the Carrs/Safeway Great Alaska Shootout. Alaska-Anchorage will play either the University of California, Riverside or Butler University (Indiana) the following day.

Stone, a senior forward, leads the team in scoring with 30 points and is second in rebounds with 13. She also leads the team in three-point shooting at eight of 19.

Jayci is the daughter of Dennis and Karen Stone of Goodland. A 2003 graduate of Goodland High, she played her first two seasons of college ball at Colby Community College then played her junior season at New Mexico State University.

The Air Force Academy lost its season opener to the University of Wisconsin 91-58 last Friday in Colorado Springs. The Falcons will try for their first win tonight in Greeley against the University of Northern Colorado.
