Wichita. They also visited with the Magers, McCallisters, Wava Reames, Dorothy Ward, Mary Leslie and several others.

There was another fantastic Memorial Day celebration at the Norcatcur Cemetery, a touching remembrance for those who have fallen. There is so much for people to be proud of and many people who have left this community, still consider it "home."

Minh and Wanda Nguyen of Lone Tree, Colo. visited Betty Reid in Norton from May 27 through May 30. On Saturday they visited Arlene Hix in Norcatcur, then that afternoon visited Oran and LaVerne in Norton to wish LaVerne a Happy 95th birthday. On Sunday they ate lunch at the Norcatcur Cafe, stopped by the Norcatcur museum and library and attended the Memorial Day services at the Norcatcur Cemetery. Thanks to everyone in Norcatcur for making Sunday such a special day.

them again in July.

Some serious card playing took place at Senior Citizens on June 3. Winners for the day were Jackie Porter and Beth Johnson, tied for first, followed by Eleanor Jensen and Marjorie Prince. There were 12 people present. Be sure to attend at 1 p.m. on Friday. We will welcome you and really we don't get serious. It's all for the fun.

Judy Menges and Janel Andrews, Colby, attended Memorial Day services, then later went to Norton to visit Vi and Veryl Van Der Wege. Vi recently had foot surgery. Her daughter, Connie Menges Lewis of Olathe, spent a few days with her. Judy and Janel also visited Idah Hoover at the Andbe Home in Norton.

Does that nice looking guy without glasses look familiar? Yup, it's Dewaine Stapp. After six weeks, he had completed his cataract surgeries and is seeing great. He says he can't remember seeing colors so clearly and bright. No wonder he is smiling.

Bee Nelson accompanied Dorothy Ward for Oberlin June 5 for dinner at the Frontier Restaurant. They played cards at the Good Samaritan and brought dinner back to their side kick, Wava Reames, who has been under the weather.

Memorial weekend guests of Cheri and Jerry Hill were daughters, Lori, Erin and families. They helped remove two big trees, went turkey hunting, visited at Good Sam, helped with the flags at the cemetery, and attended the great service there.

As a veteran, Jerry Hill attended the Selden Antique Show and was presented a "Top 5" plaque during the parade, which was a total surprise.

Rea, Dee and Jeff Magers, and Joy Luoto went to the family reunion of Dee's aunt, Lorraine Long, at Webster Reservoir, on Saturday. There were 65 present. The get together on Saturday was a huge buffet, followed by Father Henry Saw, of Hill City, saying Mass for the group under the big white tent. It was wonderful "cousin" day.
