Girls win one of three

The Decatur Community High basketball girls took seventh in the Oberlin Invitational Tournament last week, winning their first game of the season with a 55-49 victory over the Quinter Bulldogs on Saturday.

The girls lost 74-47 to Atwood on Tuesday in the first game of the tournament.

"We came out tentative once again and we fell behind early," Coach Paul Nepodal said. "Atwood is too good of a team to do that again. Our consistency is not very good right now because of our inexperience."

The Oberlin girls were only able to hit two baskets in the first quarter and fell behind Atwood 18-4.

The Devils picked up the pace in the second quarter and spent a lot of time at the free throw line, hitting eight of 14.

The Buffaloes were at the free throw line even more in the quarter, hitting 15 of 17 tries to lead the game 46-18 at the half.

The Buffaloes stayed hot in the third quarter, taking their lead to 72-30, but coasted in the last quarter, putting in several inexperienced girls, and only scored a pair of points to Oberlin's 17.

Scoring for Oberlin were Dani Dorshorst, 15, including seven out of nine free throws; Kortney Stapp, 10; Haley Vollertsen and Lindsay Fortin, 6 each; Sarah Ruf and Abby Ream, 4 each; and Kelsey Dorshorst, 2.

Leading rebounders were D. Dorshorst with 15 and K. Dorshorst and Stapp with six each.

In the second round on Friday, the Devils fell to the St. Francis Indians 48-32.

"We started off slow and were never really in the game," Coach Nepodal said. "Our consistency from game to game leaves something to be desired. Before we become a good team, we must be a consistent team."

Again the Devil girls started off with only 4 points in the first quarter. Saisty made 12. Oberlin edged up a bit in the second quarter, outscoring Saisty 14-12, but the score at the half was still 24-18. The Indians outscored Oberlin in both the third and fourth quarters to win.

Scoring were Vollertsen, 12; K. Dorshorst, 6; Dana Sattler, Ream and D. Dorshorst, 4 each; and Fortin, 2.

Leading rebounders were D. Dorshorst with 15 and K. Dorshorst and Stapp with six each.

In the last round for seventh place in the tournament, the girls finally got a hot start and beat Quinter 55-49.

"It was a good win," Coach Nepodal said. "Seventh place wasn't our goal, but we will take a win. Our team has a tough stretch to finish the year and this will help with our confidence level in future games."

The Devil girls jumped out to a 16-8 lead over the Bulldogs in the first quarter, with Vollertsen hitting two three-point shots.

The Oberlin girls continued strong leading 28-23 at the half and 42-31 at the end of the third quarter. The Bulldogs rallied in the last quarter to put up 18 points to Oberlin's 13.

Poor free throw shooting hurt the Bulldogs, who went to the line 11 times in the fourth quarter but were only able to sink four. Oberlin, also, spent a lot of time at the line sinking seven of 16 tries.

Scoring for Oberlin were Vollertsen, 22 including four three-pointers; D. Dorshorst, 11; Ream, 9; Stapp, 6; Jennifer Thomas, 5; and Ruf, 2.

D. Dorshorst was the leading rebounder with 14 followed by Stapp and Vollertsen with eight each.

The girls will travel to Goodland on Friday to face the Cowgirls. The first game will start at 6:30 p.m. Central Time.

Wrestlers take fifth place in tough Beloit Tournament

The Decatur Community High wrestling squad placed fifth at the Beloit Tournament over the weekend, with seven of 11 wrestlers winning medals, including Bryan Miller, who took first at 135 pounds.

Seventeen schools participated and only Manhattan, Clay Center, Abilene and Hoxie placed above Oberlin.

"I thought the kids wrestled pretty well considering this is the toughest tournament we've seen so far," Coach Joe Dreher said. "It's nice to get that exposure to a two-day tournament. Our conditioning was lacking a little, but we still have time to improve."

Kenyon Badsky, 130 pounds, took third place; Chance Harman, 119 pounds, fourth; Brent Olson, 112 pounds, fifth; and Shane Montgomery, 103 pounds, sixth.

Stean Olson, 171 pounds, won two and lost two and Grant Reichert, 140 pounds, and Scott Harman, 189 pounds, won one and lost two.

Jason Gallentine, 125 pounds, won one and lost one by injury default.

The boys will travel to Colby on Saturday for the Northwest Kansas League Tournament starting at 9:30 a.m. at the Colby Community Center.
