Junior High girls end season at tourneys in Sainty, Monument

The Decatur Community Junior High girls took part in a pair of tournaments last Monday, with both seventh- and eighth-grade teams coming in fourth.

The eighth graders traveled to Monument to face Atwood and Oakley. In the first round, Oberlin lost to Atwood 35-23, even though Oberlin had a little help from the opposition.

A confused Atwood eighth grader did try to help the Red Devils by putting the ball in the wrong hoop, giving Oberlin an extra two points in the game.

"The girls played tough defense, but could not make things happen offensively," Coach Jennifer Monaco said. "We also hurt ourselves by shooting only 21 percent from the free-throw line. This loss sent us to the backside of the bracket to play Oakley.

Scoring were Molly Coleman, 6;

Jamie Elwood and Haley Leitner, 5 each; Kelly Olson, 4; Trina Shields, 1; and an Atwood player, 2.

Oakley won the second round 35-32.

"The girls played an aggressive game, keeping it a close game all the way to the end," Coach Jennifer Monaco said. "The girls showed tremendous improvement. Last time we played (Oakley), we lost by 10. Jamie Elwood and Trina Shields had an outstanding game. We finished the tournament fourth out of eight teams. I'm proud of the girls."

Scoring were Elwood, 17; Shields, 10; Leitner, 3; and Coleman and Justina Miller, 1 each.

The seventh graders traveled to St. Francis to take on Atwood and Goodland. In the first round the Oberlin girls let Atwood slip past them 12-11.

"It was a heartbreaker for the girls," Coach Cindy Sattler said. "We played a terrific defensive game. We were behind until the fourth quarter and we were held scoreless the third quarter, but managed to pull ahead. A last second shot beat us. The girls played wonderfully."

Scoring for the seventh graders were Kaitlyn Stapp, 6 points; Sunnie Fredrickson and Kari Fortin, 2 each; and Lydia Karnopp, 1.

In the second game, the girls fell 29-16 to Goodland to take fourth.

"This was a hard loss for the girls," Coach Sattler said. "After the hard-played first game, the girls had trouble making any offense happen. We had several girls get into foul trouble early and that took us out of our game.

Scoring were Stapp, 8; Karnopp, 4; Anne Wasson, 2; and Danica May and Lora Marietta, 1 each.

"I am proud of the way all the girls played," Coach Sattler said. "We had a great season and look for great things from this team."
