

Herndon News

By Carol Ginther

Word has been received of the death of Duke Wellington Morland Jr., of Spring Hill. He was a brother of Anna Fleckenstein of Nacogdoches, Texas, a former Herndon resident. He was born July 27, 1922, at Tully in Rawlins County. He graduated from Atwood High School and Kansas State University, where he received his doctor of veterinary medicine degree.

Among other survivors are a daughter, Kerry Dee and Joseph "Skip" Gast, and another sister, Lila Rae Justice, all of Spring Hill, and a granddaughter. His wife, the former Esther Williamson, preceded him in death on Feb. 3, 1983.

A private family inurnment will be held at a later date at the Atwood Cemetery.

Congratulations to Megan Leitner, who will represent Rawlins County in the Kansas Junior Miss Program in Belleville on Friday and Saturday. She is the daughter of Randy and Jacque Leitner of Herndon.

Rosie Solko will celebrate her 95th birthday on Friday.

Anikka Martin, daughter of Bob and Liane Martin of Herndon, will represent Rawlins County at the State Spelling Bee in Topeka on April 7. She became the Rawlins County Spelling Champion when she correctly spelled "information." Mark Brown of Atwood was runner-up. Others competing were Bethany Holste of Atwood and Brett Sagel of Herndon.

Dawn Tongish, weekend anchor and reporter for KDAF TV in Dallas, has won honorable mention in best reporter category. This is a compilation of work. The award covered major markets such as Dallas, Houston and San Antonio. She is the daughter of Denis and Wilma Tongish.

The Herndon High School forensic squad placed third at the Cheyenne Conference Speech Contest at Kensington on March 12. Students and their rankings include: Andrea Brown, second in informative speaking; Curtis Brown, third in informative speaking; Adam Ketterl and Nik Martin, fourth in improvised duet acting, and Misty Hartner and David Sattler, seventh in duet acting.

Others competing were Angie Cash and April Portschy, improvised duet acting; Misty Hartner, prose reading; Kenzie Michel, poetry and prose reading; David Sattler and Zach William, prose reading; Nik Martin, poetry reading, and Brandon Goodrich and Chelsey Schissler, improvised duet acting.

Congratulations to Angie Cash, who was chosen to play in the 8th Annual Northwest Kansas All-Star Basketball Classic on Sunday.

Recent visitors of Rosie Solko were Sharon Ecker and Sarah Solko.

Harold and Audrey Weishapl of Atwood visited Ann Martin recently.

Recent visitors of Alvina Kogl were Mr. and Mrs. Clemens Kogl of Culbertson, Dorothy Reinert of Atwood and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Kogl.

Jennings News

By Jeanette Krizek

Navy Airman Recruit Joshua L. Davis, son of Darrell D. Davis of Jennings, and Deanna Applebee, Turpin, Okla., recently reported for duty aboard the aircraft carrier USS Enterprise, which is home ported in Norfolk, Va. He is a 2000 graduate of Jennings High School and joined the Navy last June.

The Sunflower Senior Center group enjoyed reports given by Lori Vahling and Kristi Smith on their trip to New York. They participated in Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade and shared their experiences while there. Over 30 attended the program.

The American Legion Auxiliary is sponsoring the refurbishing of the Veterans Memorial Board located in the cemetery. Over the years it has deteriorated and funds are needed to replace the board and lettering. Volunteers have started the project and are waiting for a part to finish.

Those wishing to make a donation towards the cost of redoing the board are asked to make the check out to the Legion Auxiliary and send it to Rachel Carter, Box 126, Jennings, Kan. 67643, or to The Bank, Box 10, Jennings, Kan. 67643.
