The Lunch Bunch, which of Vergie Nygren, Erma Holt, Elsie Macy, Jack Barrett and Virgil Barber ate dinner at the local sale barn Monday. Eula Juenemann assisted Kelley Black on the trip.

Maxine Chambers, Agnes Chambers, Elsie Macy, Leona Helmkamp, Erma Holt and Ruby Shuler painted butterflies on Monday.

Serena and Lisa Stacy played ball with the residents.

The Junior Girl Scout troops 118 and 44 donated an Easter tree made from a tree branch and macaroni.

Tuesday morning as the residents arrived at the dining room they were surprised to find two butterflies had emerged from their chrysalid stage. Wednesday morning another one had emerged. Each day it is noticeable that they are becoming more aggressive. Sometime in the near future we will let them free in the court yard.

A circus party with popcorn, peanuts, clowns, ringmaster, elephants, and trick dogs was held Thursday in honor of Janice Shobe. Joyce Plous sard was the circus master. Cheryl Miller and LaVern Burtis were clowns. Ken Rydquist and his trick dog entertained. Mrs. Shobe was dressed up like a purple elephant. Chocolate and Pepsi, Janice's favorite foods, were served. Family members in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Mark Shobe, Ken Shobe, and Sarah Pickett and children.

The Mike Helm family entertained residents with the numbers that they had performed for the local and regional 4-H days.

Heather and Jennifer Ploussard visited the center and did their usual weekly volunteer jobs.

Residents and their guests this past week include: Mariam Allison — Jody Betts; Ruby McKenna — Earl and Pat Hartzog, Edward McKenna, Donna Chambers; Mabel Humes, Irene Corcoran — Wilma May; Vergie Nygren — Marcille Berryman, Kim and Kevin Kreyhnb, Edla Olson; Ella Peterson, Rena Hickson — Edla Olson, Goldie Raulston; Maxine Fair — Marianna Bendon; Maxine Chambers — Carol Allen; Dorothy Wolters — Elsie and G.H. Wolters; Dena Gillespie — Earl and Pat Hartzog, June Vavroch, Pastor Glenn and Betty Krebs; John Kleidosty — Phil Kleidosty; Mabel Adams — Pastor Glenn and Betty Krebs.

Let's Go to the Museum

Fonda Farr, curator

We had a very nice annual meeting last week and some wonderful desserts. Thank you, board members and staff. I really enjoyed being able to hold it in the Bohemian Hall. It was much easier to explain what has been accomplished and things that we still hope to do. Myrna Jones and Lois Carlson entertained us with several musical numbers and those who do sing, sang along and sounded really great. (something I will never be able to join in on.)

I can't believe our attendance so far for only being open a couple of weeks. The first day we had five guests and four people wanting genealogy research done. We are hoping for a very full, busy summer. A lot of fun was had with the Oberlin fourth grade on April 5. Kay Marcuson, Edwin Black, Vada Shaw and Grace

Hoppas all volunteered as guides to help out with the children.

Of the 85 guests since the 1st of April, Kansas, Colorado, Michigan, Maryland, Maine, Louisiana, Minnesota, Nebraska, Missouri, Utah, Texas, Arizona, New Jersey, Washington, Connecticut, North Dakota, California and Canada have all been represented.

Last week was also unusual genealogy-wise. We had a letter of request from Portland, Ore., an e-mail from Vermillion, S.D., and a visitor from Winfield, Kan., all researching the very same family and none of them knew each other. We helped each of them and put them in touch with each other in the hope that they could work together and find even more family information.
