Families, friends await return of service people

Yvonne Salvarria

Yvonne Kay Snyder Salvarria, AE1/E6 has been serving in the U.S. Navy for the last 16 years.

She is stationed at Point Mugu, Calif. Ms. Salvarria will be transferred to VAW-12 in June and is scheduled to be deployed on the USS Carl Vinson carrier.

Ms. Salvarria graduated from Decatur Community High School in 1985 and attended Fort Hays State University. From there she entered the service.

She has a daughter Aisia Da Nae, 7.

Her parents are Merle Snyder, Gem, and Bart Snyder, Oberlin. She has two sisters Kim Atkinson in Garden City and Teresa Meitl in Kansas City, Mo.

Mark Schultz

Sergeant First Class Mark Schultz has already been deployed to the Iraqi Freedom War.

At the beginning of March, he was 25 miles south of Baghdad.

His base is Fort Campbell, Ky., where he was working before being deployed.

He is married to Wendy and they have two children, Amanda, 17 and Tylor, 13, and Justin, who hasn't been born yet.

His parents are Gloria and John Schultz of Oberlin. He graduated from Decatur Community High School in 1984.

Amanda said it has been a hard time for the whole family. They just pray that he comes home safely.

Pray for our troops and their families.
