

Couple wed in Jennings

Amy Marie Randolph of Jennings and Dustin Lee Walker of Emporia were married at 7 p.m. on Saturday, Aug. 17, at the United Methodist Church in Jennings, with Pastor Glen Krebs officiating.

Parents of the couple are Lennis and Kathy Randolph, Jennings, and Raymond and Brenda Beaver, Emporia.

Honored guests were Mrs. Donna Hager, Hays, grandmother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Harman, great-uncle and great-aunt of the bride; and Mrs. Ila Burke, great-aunt of the bride. The bridegroom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Wright, Emporia, were unable to attend.

The bride, carrying a cascading bouquet of red roses and lilies of the valley, was escorted by her father.

Serving as maid of honor was Katie Randolph, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Natasha Beaver, sister of the bridegroom; Sarah Hutching, and Megan Kinser.

Candlelighters were Tara Gassmann and Rebecca Carter.

Serving as best man was Aron Watkins. Groomsmen were Lance Randolph, brother of the bride; Phil Castillo, and Ray Beaver, brother of the bridegroom.

Ringbearer was Nathaniel Castillo. Kirstin Georgeson, cousin of the bride, was flower girl.

Guests were seated by Kathy Watkins and Landon McDill, cousin of the bride.

Vocalists were Delbert and Lori

Johnson, uncle and aunt of the bride. They sang, "Wind Beneath My Wings." Other selections played at the ceremony were "Amazed," "Only Time," and "It's Your Love." Julie Carter was organist.

Erica Castillo and Amy Zadina were seated at the guest book.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church. Servers were Beverly Randolph and Janis McDill, aunts of the bride; and Nickia Vance and Debra Randolph, cousins of the bride. A dance followed at the City Hall in Jennings.

After a trip to Colorado, they are at home in Hays, where he is employed at Sykes Enterprises, Inc., and the bride is a senior at Fort Hays State University.

Club News

Club hears hospice program

Amanda McKenzie of Phillipsburg, Hospice coordinator for the 14-county area of Northwest Kansas, was speaker at the Jan. 13 meeting of Monday Evening Club held at the home of Peggy Pratt. Karen Metcalf was co-hostess.

She told the group that Hospice services are now provided for any terminal illness, not just cancer, and not just for the elderly but for all ages where the need exists. She also explained the ways in which Hospice serves the family members over a period of time.

Roll call was answered by 15 members and one guest, Patti Richards, by giving the epitaph each had composed for herself. Plans for entertaining at Cedar Living Center on Jan. 22 were announced. It was voted to join the Decatur County Area Chamber of Commerce and to make a donation to Hospice.

The Feb. 10 meeting will be at the home of Sharon Addleman with Diane Frickey as co-hostess. Dr. Wendy Vogel will present the program.

Day of prayer observed

Oberlin United Methodist Women met on Jan. 8 at the church for a simple meal of soup and bread in observance of the annual Day of Prayer and Self-Denial. Hostesses were Laurene Bryan, Ruby Wennihan and Goldie Stapp.

Lesson leader for the service, "A Gift of a Lifetime," was Mary Waldo.

President Pat Wright told of the project to send CARE boxes to college and vo-tech students from the Oberlin and Prairie Chapel churches in February. Women's or children's shoe boxes for mailing and collection boxes for donated food are located near each church entry.

The next meeting will be on Feb. 5.

Auxiliary to choose delegates

Plans were made at the January meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary to choose Girls State delegates when they gather for a potluck supper and meeting on Feb. 12. The junior girls will be introduced by Mary Lohoefer and their parents are also invited.

Ten members were present. Joan and Kristy Evans and Dolores Koerperich were hostesses.

President Phyllis Metcalf gave a program on children and youth. A thank you was read from Bill and Robyn DeMay for serving at the Lawrence Urban funeral.

Couple enjoys Hawaiian trip

Bill and Carol Duncan left Oberlin for a two-week vacation, on Jan. 11. Their first weekend was spent in Oklahoma City, visiting with grandson, Brandon Norris, a sophomore at Oklahoma Christian University. On Monday they flew to Honolulu, Hawaii for 10 days. They were met by Carol's sister and husband, Marilyn and Don Myers, of Enid, Okla. The first week they toured the island and visited the many wonders including hiking to the top of Diamond Head crater, and visiting the North shore, with its large, world renowned surfing waves, an activity in which they did not participate.

The second week was spent in Honolulu with a variety of activities, concerts, shows and shopping. Bill did extensive video taping of the Oahu Island sights and sounds. As Mr. Myers is retired military, they were able to stay at the Hale Koa Hotel, the U.S. Military R and R facilities, on Waikiki Beach. A newspaper report on tourism while they were there stated that 78,000 people a day arrive in Honolulu, and their observation was that two out of three are from Japan.

Both couples are celebrating their 50th wedding anniversaries this year. This was the Myers' ninth vacation trip to the Islands. The Duncans returned home to Oberlin on Saturday evening.

'Circus' coming to Oberlin

The Oberlin Arts and Humanities Commission is having a circus at 2 p.m. on Sunday, Feb. 9, at the Oberlin Gateway Civic Center. The arena will house the professional "Bungling Brothers" paper mache' circus animals from Norton.

As well as viewing the animals, attendees will be entertained by Richard Renner, the "Vodvil Klown", in a Slapstick Circus show. Roving performances will feature him as a silent unicycling clown or in comic roles, all performed on stilts, including Grandma Walker, a 10-foot octogenarian, and Stilt Chamberlain, a one-man basketball team.

Following the Vodvil Klown, SpinMaster Brent Dellinger will "wow" the crowd in the theater at 3 p.m. with his award-winning yo-yo skills. He won the National Yo-Yo championship in 2003 and has marketed two yo-yo's.

Admission is by season ticket or at the door for $10; $5 for students or $3 for children under 12 years of age.

For details, call Mary at (785) 475-3329 or Ella, (785) 475-3557.

Kindergarten registration set

Parents of children who will be attending kindergarten at Oberlin Elementary School in 2003-2004 should register their children at the school office between Feb. 3-7.

Parental cooperation in registering the children will be appreciated by all of the school personnel. Parents who are unable to come to the school office with the necessary information may contact the Oberlin Elementary School office by phone at (785) 475-2122.

A child must be five years of age on or before Aug. 31, 2003, to be eligible for kindergarten. Those who have questions are asked to contact the school office.
