Girl Scout Week observed

Daisy, Brownie and Junior Girls Scouts met together on March 11 at the United Methodist Church in honor of Girl Scout Week.

Each girl made a "Good Luck" beaded key chain to put on their book bag. The girls made green wreaths with a four-leaf clover in the center and St. Patrick's Day color sheets. After the meeting, some of the girls assisted the leaders in hanging the decorations at the Good Samaritan Center, Cedar Living Center and Decatur County Health Systems.

The girls would like to thank everyone for supporting Girl Scouts by purchasing cookies. After the council pays the cookie company, the profits are distributed to the troops.

Cookie dough is distributed to girls and other profit is used for council services and programs.

The troop money is used to go on trips; pay for community service projects; and help pay for troop supplies and badges that the girls have earned. Each girl earns "cookie dough," which are points based on the number of boxes of cookies she sells. These points count toward paying their own way to camp; paying their membership dues; buying their uniform or other Girl Scout promotional items.

All activities in Girl Scouting are designed to encourage girls to develop their sell potential; learn to relate to others; develop values and contribute to society.
