

Lyle News

By Helen Helm

On Sunday, June 1, the Lyle United Methodist Women sponsored their last community dinner until fall. Those present were Joyce Sumner; Ward Sumner; Yvonne Sumner and grandson, Andrew Archer of McPherson; Deanna Sumner, Brooke and Brady; Ona Van Gundy; Veda Wood; Virgil and Joyce Price; Pat Schwab; Marguerite Fullerton and her guests, Steve and Rojean Rowley of St. George, Utah; Kathy Van Meter, and Pastor Charles and Inez Keller.

A fifth Friday potluck dinner was held before the Senior Citizen card party at Norcat. June Jolly and Kathy Van Meter attended.

Mrs. Fullerton, Mrs. Van Meter, and Mrs. Jolly helped with the Share program in Norcat Saturday. Sunday evening Mrs. Jolly and Mrs. Van Meter picked up Juanita Eckhart at Norcat and attended the last pitch tournament until next fall at Norton. Mrs. Leone Purton was Mrs. Jolly's partner.

Rojean and Steve Rowley of St. George, Utah, arrived in Norton on May 29, and visited Marguerite Fullerton. Mrs. Rowley is a cousin of Mrs. Fullerton. On Friday they visited the library and genealogy center in Beaver City, Neb., and ate at the senior center. On Saturday they went to the museum in Oberlin for more genealogy work. On Sunday they accompanied Mrs. Fullerton to church at Lyle and attended the dinner there. Mrs. Yvonne Sumner visited them that afternoon. On Monday they took Mrs. Fullerton to the doctor in Oberlin and all had lunch with Laurene and Gene Van Otterloo. Leslie Ward and Keith visited them at the Fullerton home late Monday afternoon.

Donna and Earnest Huff were in Denver the weekend of May 31 to attend a Jehovah's Witness Assembly. They report that 7,000 people were at the Coliseum.

Mrs. Margaret Magers returned home June 5, after joining her daughter, Mrs. Judy Easton, on a plane trip to Tampa, Fla., where they visited Kent and Joani Killen, Madison and Cody. The children accompanied them home. All were Wednesday overnight guests of the John Guy family in Abilene, and Katie, Kori, and Kurstin Guy also came home with them. All five children stayed at the Eastons on Thursday, June 5, and on Friday they expected Brittany and Tyler Hawk of Aurora, Colo., to join them at Grandma Toots' home at Lyle. Each year she likes to have the great-grandchildren spend time together at her house.

Mrs. June Jolly and Mrs. Karen Brown joined the card players at the Eagles Club in McCook Monday evening. On Wednesday, Kathy Van Meter and Rhonda Jolly quilted at the June Jolly home. Mrs. Van Meter had taken Mrs. Fullerton to Norton for an eye appointment that morning.

On Sunday, June 1, John and Helen Helm attended the potluck dinner held in St. Catherine's Hall in Indianola, Neb., in honor of the former pastor, Monsignor Daniel Pohl of Bonacum House in Lincoln, Neb., on his 50th anniversary of being ordained a priest and the present pastor, Fr. Nicholas Baker, who was celebrating his 40th anniversary.

Mike Helm and Aaron, Jacob, Matthew, and Timothy visited Grandpa and Grandma Helm while Deb and Rebecca were attending the Scout meeting Tuesday evening, June 3. Mike and Aaron were able to answer all the questions that Grandma had accumulated about the computer.
