Mary Elizabeth and Larry Van Otterloo

Couple married in Oberlin

Mary Elizabeth Zodrow and Larry Van Otterloo of Manhattan were married on Friday, July 4, 2003, at the United Methodist Church in Oberlin.

The Rev. Doug Hasty officiated at the double-ring ceremony before an altar decorated with the unity candle surrounded by white, burgundy, and blue flowers.

Parents of couple are Gary and Leola Zodrow, Oberlin; Larry Van Otterloo Sr., Oberlin, and Tina Earle, Monument, Colo.

Joan Christensen, Foreston, Minn., sang "How Beautiful" following the sermon, and Kate Bice, Manhattan, sang, "Wings to Make Me Fly" as the mothers lighted the candle for the unity candle, and "The One" as the couple lighted the unity candle.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a bridal gown by Alfred Angelo fashioned with a tank top with beaded designs. The full satin skirt was hemmed with a wide satin band accented with beaded floral designs. The beaded carriage back flowed into a cathedral train. An Austrian crystal bun wrap held her double-tiered veil of imported English illusion. She carried a bouquet of burgundy, navy blue and white flowers.

Lara Zodrow, Oberlin, who wore a navy blue dress which matched that of the matron of honor, and Maddison Van Otterloo, Stewart, Iowa, in a white gown, were flower girls. Cody Van Otterloo, Stewart, Iowa, was ringbearer.

Deena Zodrow, Oberlin, was matron of honor. She wore a Lanz of Salzburg lace and georgette gown, fashioned with a rosette back with detachable train, empire waist and princess seams. Bridesmaids were Stacie Gamblin, Beloit; Shannon Van Otterloo, Stewart, Iowa; and Jennifer Kump, Wichita. Their gowns matched that of the matron of honor. All of the flowers for the wedding were made by Judy Kump, Wichita.

Neil Van Otterloo, Stewart, Iowa, served his brother as best man. Groomsman were Mory Zodrow and Larry Van Otterloo, Oberlin, and Tim Snell, Northglenn, Colo. Steve Zodrow, Norton, and LeRay Zodrow, Oberlin, were ushers.

Lori Zodrow and Brenda and Amber Cook, Norton, were seated at the guest book and also assisted with the gifts.

A reception followed at the Centennial Bowl. Dee Blodgett, Midland, Mich., and Vicky Huntley, Oberlin, served the cake; Cecelia Brown, Oberlin, and Missy Hazel, Hutchinson, assisted. Duane Blodgett, Midland, Mich., was in charge of the gifts. The wedding pictures were taken by Valerie and Jonathan Hickert, Wichita.

The bride is a graduate of Decatur Community High School and McPherson College. She is employed at Big Lakes in Manhattan.

The bridegroom graduated from Northglenn High School and Arapahoe College in Colorado. He is employed by Powell Brothers, Inc., in heating, ventilating and air conditioning sales.

After a honeymoon, they are at home in Manhattan.

Out-of-town guests included: Ron and Judy Kump and Jennifer, Ron and Valarie Hickert and Jonathan, Wichita; Shawn and Missy Hazel and girls, Hutchinson; Lorrell and Virginia Almquist, Tracy and Ann Kingsbury and family, Tim and Sue Meyer and family, Smith Center; Gus and Sharon Hickert, Jennings; Lenny Zodrow and Christifer, Paul and Laurine Spiecker, Holyoke, Colo.; Ian and Jessica Harms and family, Simla, Colo.; Robert and Annick Zodrow, McCook; Duane and Dee Blodgett, Midland, Mich.; Steve and Lori Zodrow and girls, Norton; Bob and Diane Muirhead and family, Colby; Jerry and Joan Loughmiller and family, Wellington; John and Ruth Peters, Hays; Ben and Leone Spiers, Milaca, Minn.; Tom and Joanie Christensen, Foreston, Minn.; Tom and Pat Egli, Truro, Iowa; Gary and Becky Knight, Papillion, Neb.;

Club News

Rock Island Rockets meet

The June meeting of the Rock Island Rockets 4-H Club was called to order by President Brett McKenna. Ten members and three mothers responded to roll call.

The president reported a good response to the club's food drive for the Decatur County Ministerial Association's food pantry. Treasurer Marcus McKenna noted there was a nice turnout for the club's annual Good Friday bake sale.

Josh Ritter told about attending Rock Springs Camp and the club voted to help out with $30 of his expenses. The club set a date of June 14 for the highway clean-up project, with Josh and Seth Ritter providing the beverages.

Project talks were given by Courtney Gillespie and Kaitlyn Gillespie. Treats were provided by Jade and David Cressler. The annual 4-H Club Tour will be held at 7 p.m. on July 28. The group will start at Marcus McKenna's, then travel to Adam and Brian Miller's, on to Gillespies', and back to the United Methodist Church for the remainder of the project displays and snacks. Beverages will be provided by Brett McKenna.

Summerfield scholar named

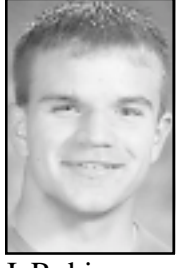

Jake Robinson of Oberlin is among more than 50 incoming freshmen who have been named Summerfield and Watkins-Berger scholars at the University of Kansas. He is the son of Merlou Robinson and Mike Robinson.

The incoming freshmen will receive $2,500 per year for four years. The scholarships are awarded to recognize outstanding academic achievement and demonstrated leadership and service from Kansas high school graduates. Students are eligible for consideration if they have a 3.5 cumulative high school grade-point average and a score of 31 or higher on the American College Test.

Summerfield scholarships for men are funded through an endowment established by the late Solon E. Summerfield, who was a Lawrence native and KU graduate.

Watkins-Berger scholarships for women are financed by the estate of the late Elizabeth M. Watkins of Lawrence and an endowment in memory of Emily Berger, a KU student, by her brother, the late Arthur Berger of Dallas. The KU Endowment Association manages the funds for both.

The KU Office of Admissions and Scholarships will announce additional Summerfield and Watkins-Berger scholars in the fall.
