Obituaries

Harvey Dean Bastin

Harvey Dean Bastin, 78, a longtime farmer in the Rexford area, died Aug. 3, 2003, at Hays Medical Center.

He was born on a farm southwest of Menlo on Jan. 30, 1925, the son of Harvey E. and Edith G. (Hawkins) Bastin. He attended Menlo School through his junior year.

Because of his father's asthma and three brothers serving during World War II, he was deferred from the draft to work full-time on the farm. He received his General Education Diploma after returning to the United States from service in Korea in 1952.

He was baptized and joined the Gem Baptist Church at an early age. The family moved to a farm north of Rexford in 1945. He was inducted into the Army in 1950 and served as a corporal in B Battery, 90th Field Artillery Battalion, 25th Infantry Division as a truck vehicle mechanic. He received the Korean Service Medal with four Bronze Stars.

In later years, he received additional medals, including the National Defense and Good Combat medals, as well as a Letter of Appreciation from the Committee for National Defense of the National Assembly of the Republic of Korea. He returned to the farm after his discharge.

He married Glendora June Camp on June 16, 1953, in Selden. He transferred his membership to the Rexford Community Church in 1964 and had served on the church board and as Sunday School superintendent. He was a member of the Rexford American Legion Post, a member of the Rexford Odd Fellows for 25 years and had served as a scoutmaster for two years.

Survivors include his wife; their children, Regena and Evan Barnum, Colby; Dale and Dagmar Bastin, Belgium; Kenneth Bastin, rural Selden; Louise and Larry Lahman, Phoenix; and Louis Bastin, Fort Smith, Ark.; seven grandchildren; two brothers, Cleo Bastin, Clay Center, and Alvin and Vera Bastin, Massachusettes, and a brother-in-law, Harold Hill, Oberlin.

Funeral services were Friday at the Rexford Community Church. Lane Purcell officiated, and burial was at the Rexford Cemetery with military rites by the Rexford American Legion.

A memorial has been established to the Rexford Community Church. Contributions may be sent to Pauls Funeral Home, Selden, Kan., 67757.

Birdene Lippold

Birdene Lippold, 78, a longtime resident of Herndon, died Aug. 1, 2003, at Columbine Care Center West in Fort Collins, Colo.

She was born Oct. 5, 1924, in Ludell, the daughter of Joseph and Ruth (Henningson) Goeltl. She attended Pettera Country School near her home and graduated from Herndon High School.

She married Virgil S. Lippold on Feb. 5, 1948, in Herndon and he preceded her in death. She was city clerk for several years in Herndon. After her husband's death, she moved to Fort Collins in 1977 and worked for the Poudre R-1 School District as an attendance clerk and purchasing clerk. She retired in 1990.

Survivors include two sons, Les Lippold and fiancée, Linda Kinstad, Northglenn, Colo., and Randy and Donna Lippold, Eric and Sara, Parker, Colo.; two daughters, Arlys and Jim Sanborn, Aurora, Colo.; and Peggy and Al Gates, Lindy and Luke, Loveland, Colo.; a granddaughter, Velina and Mike Ball and Dakota, Littleton, Colo.; and three sisters, Doris Lippold, McCook; and Darlene Pope, and Virginia Goeltl, Aurora, Colo.

She was also preceded in death by a son, Don Lippold.

Memorial services were held Aug. 5 at Allnutt Funeral Service in Loveland. Memorials were established to Hospice of Larimer County. Contributions may be sent to the funeral home, 2100 N. Lincoln Ave., Loveland, Colo., 80538.

Helen Ann Schwarz

Helen Ann Schwarz, 89, a native of Herndon, died Sunday at Longmont, Colo.

She was born July 13, 1914, on a farm eight miles south of Herndon, the daughter of Paul and Elizabeth (Zwickl) Steier. Her parents were first generation immigrants to the United States.

She attended school in a one-room schoolhouse near her home through eighth grade, then began working as a housekeeper.

She married Hugo Schwarz on April 25, 1934, and they farmed north of Herndon before moving to McCook. She later moved to Longmont.

Survivors include a son, the Rev. Gerald and Phyllis Schwarz, Callaway, Neb.; a daughter Sharon and Darrell Pebley, Longmont; a brother, Harry Steier; a sister-in-law, Wilma Steier; a son-in-law, Floyd Gadbois; 15 grandchildren; and 12 great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband; a daughter, Glenda Gadbois; a son, Larry Schwarz; four brothers, Herbert, Walter, and Bob Steier, and a sister, Emma Schiessler.

A memorial service was held in Longmont on Tuesday. Services will be held at 10:30 a.m. today at Memorial United Methodist Church in McCook with the Rev. Dan Spearow officiating. Burial will be in Memorial Park Cemetery in McCook.

Memorials may be given to Memorial United Methodist Church of McCook or Life Care Center of Longmont. Contributions may be sent to Herrmann Funeral Home, 607 Norris Ave., McCook, Neb., 69001.

WEATHER

Decatur County Forecast for Aug 12th - Aug 18th

Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat	Sun	Mon
85/60	89/63	92/65	92/65	92/65	95/62	95/62
Normal High	87	Sunrise	6:51 to 6:57am
Normal Low	59	Sunset	8:42 to 8:34pm

Temperatures will continue to be above normal this week and there will be only a small chance of a few thunderstorms. The best chance of thunderstorms will be Friday night and Saturday as a cold front moves from northwest to southeast across the area. It is not a very good chance, but it is a small chance nonetheless. The very warm and relatively dry weather will continue for most of next week. The threat of showers and thunderstorms will increase next week as moisture works northward over the Rockies.
