

Rexford News

By Zula Horinek

There was a fire at the gun shop that was Carroll Gould's. It is now the rental property of Bill Dible. The cause was undetermined. The fire department did a good job putting it out so it didn't spread to other properties.

The Barnswallows pinocle group had 10 and the "Come on Down" group met Thursday with five present.

Even with the hot weather a lot attended the fair. The locally owned carnival was a great addition to the event.

Cleda Moeder took her grandson, Taylor, fishing at Sheridan Lake.

She took her motor home so they had some relief from the heat and they reported a very good time.

We lost a longtime resident, Dean Bastin, 78, who resided on a farm for many years. He was in the Hays Medical Center intensive care at the time of his death.

Matt and Lyn Cheney entertained with a barbecue and birthday cake and homemade ice cream for the second birthday of their daughter, Amanda Kay, on Aug. 3. Those present were Gary and Kay Cheney, Phyllis and Allen Cheney, Grace and Duane Cheney, all of Rexford; Kathy Hertel, Bird City; Chad Focke, Selden; Mandy Morgan, Hoxie; and Scott Harrison, Colby.

Jackie Gilkerson underwent open heart surgery at Via Christi Hospital in Wichita. All of her children were with her: John Cersousky, Colby; Theresa Laughran, Colorado Springs, Colo.; Don Cersousky, Fort Worth, Texas; Cindy Bisner, Natoma; and Jerry Cersousky, Colby. Patty Casey, Wichita, spent a lot of time with Jackie before her kids got there. She called and said that Jackie was out of surgery and intensive care, and so far everything is going well.

Plan to attend summer social

The fair has come and gone. It did bring some sprinkles to the area, but not the usual soaker that is needed. At least the weather wasn't over the century mark like last year.

There has been a farmers market on Wednesdays when the ladies get to town that morning. They don't promise exactly what time it will be, but usually it is still nice and cool. The fresh things taste so good. The corn is gone when they hit the street.

Be sure to lock your car doors so you won't be the unexpected recipient of some of that green stuff, spelled z-u-c-c-h-i-n-i.

The chamber and business alliance are sponsoring the community summer social and Unified School District employee appreciation picnic in the city park on Monday, Aug.

Chamber News

By Glenva Nichols

18, starting at 6 p.m. This is open to the public, all you need to do is call the chamber office by Friday, Aug. 15, to turn in your reservations so we can order enough chicken. The fried chicken, baked beans and drink are furnished. You will need to bring a salad or dessert, table service, chair and a guest. We had a lot of fun last year and plan on the same this year. There will be two drawings, one for a chamber membership and the other will be dinner for two at the LandMark Inn. The chamber is selling chances for a vacation for two at the Beaver Creek Guest Ranch in June, July or August of 2004. The drawing will be January 15, 2004, at the annual meeting and banquet. They are available at the chamber office for $1 each. Plan on attending the Fireman's Fun Day in Jennings on Aug. 23. We hope that many can attend this annual event. The winner of the Fifth Wednesday drawing on July 30 was Vickie Sowers. She got $50 of script money to spend in participating stores. Congratulations, Vickie. Stop in and have a cup of coffee.

McGraw News

By Karl Launchbaugh

Mr. and Mrs. Gayle Bainter and Warren Bainter went to Wichita to visit Wanda Burt on Friday and Saturday.

Frank Weis was a Friday overnight guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Weis. Mrs. Roger Mauck, Bob Weis, and Norbert Weis visited on Saturday.

Traer News

By Maralyn Courange

Maralyn Courange was a dinner guest of Jerridee Vernon of Kanopolis and Patty Brown at the Brown home recently.

Shawn Wheelbarger of McCook visited his grandparents, Irvan and Maralyn Courange on Saturday.
