Lady Red Devil named all-league

Oberlin senior Abby Ream has been chosen for all-league honors in basketball by the Northwest Kansas League coaches. Ream was the only Oberlin girl chosen to make the team. "I was certainly pleased to have Abby make all-league," Coach Paul Nepodal said. "After being a four-year starter and, I feel, one of the better point guards in our league, she deserved to be on the team. "I am disappointed that neither Kelsey Dorshorst nor Jamie Elwood received a single vote from a coach in our league. They both had good years for us and played their best against the best competition. When three teams from the league make it to state, though, that says something about the quality of players and teams in our league." Also named all-league were junior Jacie Hoyt, senior Kim Torluemke and sophomore Dani Pratt, Hoxie High School; senior Ivy Ramsey and junior Emily Sloan, Colby; senior Brooke Inlow and junior Veronica Kuhlman, Oakley; senior Callie Coberly, Quinter; freshman Dani Bedore, Goodland; and junior Ariel Dunker, Atwood. Receiving honorable mention were senior Rachel Wood, Atwood;

senior Amanda Seeman, Colby; freshman Whitney Archer and senior Jessica Osborn, Goodland; senior Emily Pilkington, Oakley; freshman Jocelyn Anderson, Quinter; and senior Kandee Raile, St.
