Corrections

The obituary for Twila Faye Kaus, 61, in the March 31 issue of The Oberlin Herald said that she was a niece of Darlene Black of Oberlin. She actually was her sister-in-law. This was the result of incorrect information given to the newspaper.
☆☆☆☆
The sheriff's blotter in the April 7 issue of The Oberlin Herald said that David Clovis is 21. He actually is 26. The alcohol in his vehicle was sealed. This was a reporter's mistake.
☆☆☆☆
An obituary for Alvin Jay Jording in the April 7 edition of The Oberlin Herald had his date of birth wrong. It should have been March 21, 1914. This was a proofing error.
☆☆☆☆
The Oberlin Herald will correct or clarify any mistake or misunderstanding in a news story. Please call our office at 475-2206 to report errors. We believe that news stories should be fair and factual, and appreciate your calling to our attention any failure to live up to this standard.

Oberlin named a Tree City

Oberlin has been named a Tree City USA by the National Arbor Day Foundation for commitment to its community forest, the 18th year Oberlin has received this national recognition.
The program is sponsored by the foundation in cooperation with the National Association of State Foresters and the U.S. Forest Service.

Oberlin met the four standards by having a tree board, a tree care ordinance, a community forestry program, and an Arbor Day observance.

Walter R. Anderson

Walter R. Anderson, 81, a 38-year employee of Norcat-Decatur Rural Electric Cooperative, died April 5, 2004, at Marysville.
He was born March 8, 1923, in Fort Collins, Colo., the son of J. Fred and Amy H. (Anderson) Anderson. He spent his childhood in Meeker, Colo., and attended school there. He attended Colorado State University in Fort Collins, Colo.

He married Bonnie Cressler on June 2, 1944, in Hoxie. They lived on a farm north of Studley until moving to Norton in 1947. In 1952, they moved to Hill City, where they reared their three children. They moved to Oberlin in 1969.

After World War II, he worked for the Norton-Decatur Rural Electric Cooperative and retired in 1985. His wife preceded him in death on May 22, 1991.

He married Verna Mae (Marvin) Jackson Bryan on Dec. 26, 1992, in Oberlin, where they made their home. He was a member of the United Church of Oberlin and Masonic Lodge in Hill City.

Survivors include his wife, Verna Mae, Oberlin; two sons, Bill and Debra Anderson, Topeka; and Fred Anderson, Oberlin; a daughter, Melanie Anderson, Oberlin; five grandchildren; three step-daughters, Christi Wesch, Hiawatha; Linda and Cliff Mills, Palmer, Lake, Colo.; and Kathy and Ron Haug, Salida, Colo.; four step-grandchildren; and one great-step-grandson.

He was also preceded in death by his parents and a brother, William Anderson.

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon at Pauls Funeral Home in Oberlin. The Rev. Nolan Pierce officiated and burial was in the Oberlin Cemetery.

Memorials were established to the American Heart Association; the American Cancer Society or the United Church of Oberlin. Contributions may be sent to Pauls Funeral Home, 121 N. Penn, Oberlin, Kan., 67749.

WEATHER

Decatur County Forecast for April 13th - 19th

Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat	Sun	Mon
65/38	75/43	80/45	83/48	78/45	68/38	70/43

Normal High 62 Sunrise 6:58 to 7:07am
Normal Low 30 Sunset 8:19 to 8:25pm

A rainy Good Friday, a couple showers on Easter, and snow last night. Will we see wet weather the next 7 Sundays or will it stay dry? This week definitely looks dry with temperatures climbing back into the 70's and 80's by the end of the week. A cool front over the weekend will give us a slight chance for showers or storms Sunday, but rain chances look much better with a second system next Tuesday or Wednesday.
