Cards of Thanks

Joan and I would like to thank you - friends and family - for your prayers, telephone calls, flowers, and cards this past month, during her serious illness. Thanks to our mighty and loving God, she is recovering. Thank you so very much for your thoughts and loving concern. May God bless you all.
Karolyn Muirhead*

The children and grandchildren of Walt Anderson would like to thank the community of Oberlin for their outpouring of love and concern since his illness and death on April 5. The response to us was overwhelming and greatly appreciated. We hope we can pass such love on to others in the future. I personally would like to thank Shelly at the hospital who took care of Dad that morning and had to tell me the distressing news, to Patrick Pomeroy and crew who were with Dad at his last moments on earth, and the two nurses of Marysville Hospital who talked to me about arrangements; Montine Alstrom,

Marcia Lohofener, and Alyce Avery for coming over immediately when the word came; Jan Matheny for staying with me until Dad's body was returned to Oberlin; Janice Shobe and Marian Sampewolf and kitchen staff of Good Samaritan Center for covering for me at work. Also thank you to Pastors Barbara and Nolan Pierce, and all the other friends who have come over, called and sent cards, letters and gifts. Your love is beyond measure. To Verna Mae, Christy, Linda and Cliff, and Kathy and Ron, thank you for loving Dad so much, and for making us part of your family. May God bless you richly.
