Mrs. Dale Young hosted a surprise birthday party honoring her aunt, Myrtle Anderson Warner, at the Tea Rose Parlor on Friday. Others present were Mrs. Warner's son and his wife, Gerald and Leona Rogers, Newton; her granddaughter, GERALYN PARKER, and great-granddaughter, Jillian Parker, Goodland; her nieces, Karen Metcalf and Fern Wenger; and great-nieces, Candy Dejmaj, Terri Woolsey, Tammy Fredrickson, and Kristin McHugh. Evening callers were Gerald and Leona Rogers, Jack and Karen Metcalf, Eris Young and Joe and Candy Dejmaj.

Christie Morris was in Manhattan from Monday to Thursday, where she attended a summer music teachers seminar at Kansas State University. She then visited her daughter, Julie, in Lee's Summit, Mo., before returning home Saturday.

Mary Henzel returned last week after visiting her son, Richard Henzel, in Pensacola, Fla., a few days. They enjoyed para-sailing, visited the Naval Air Museum, toured the Civil War Fort and historic downtown Pensacola. Her son is an architect and she was able to see several of the buildings he designed.

Marilia Correa, exchange student from Brazil, is visiting her godmother in Dallas this week. She is a Youth for Understanding student, who is living with Dan and Lisa Votapka and family, and will be returning home in July.

Jane and Darren Dinges of Holcomb visited from Friday to Sunday with her parents, Richard and Clara Russ.

Nick Anderson, a student at McPherson College, was named to the honor roll for the spring semester. Students must achieve at 3.55 to 4.0 grade point average to receive the honor. He is the son of Tom and Karen Anderson and is a 2003 graduate of Decatur Community High School.

Judy Scott, Connie Grafel, and

Marilyn Henke, Manhattan, traveled to Canyon Lake, Texas, on June 11 for a vacation at the Hill Country Resorts near the historic village of the Gruene. En route they stopped to visit the Oklahoma City Memorial, which honors the bombing victims, and also toured Bricktown. They stopped in Austin and met Chris Metcalf for dinner. Two days were spent in San Antonio visiting along the Riverwalk, The Alamo, La Villita, Market Square, Mission San Jose, HemisFair Park and the Tower of the Americas. They returned home Friday in order to take part in the Relay for Life Walk-a-thon.

Cecil Hess visited last week in Salina with her son, Dan, Julie and Carter Hess and attended funeral services on Thursday at St. John Nepomucene Church in Pilsen for George Holub, father of Julie Hess.

Attending Lauren Waldron's high school commencement exercises at Bangor, Pa., were her grandparents, Dennis and Judy Shirley; her great-grandmother, Doris Sloan; uncle, Patrick Shirley, and great-aunt, Cindi Sauder, Flower Mound, Texas. They spent the week with Vicki, Lauren and Kasey. Vicki had just moved into a new home. Becky Barlow, Jacksonville Beach, Fla., joined them on Sunday for the graduation party held at the Wayne Waldron home. Lauren is also the great-granddaughter of Merle Shirley of Oberlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Wolters attended funeral services for Charlotte Adams at the Berean Church in Colby on Thursday.
