Two firefighters honored at McCook

Shane Smith, son of Peg Smith of Oberlin, and Joy Molczyk, both McCook city firefighters, recently reached milestones in their profession. Mr. Smith passed the National Registry of Emergency Medical Technicians-Paramedic exam, which certifies him as a National Registered EMT-Paramedic, while Ms. Molczyk passed the National Registry of Emergency Medical Technicians-Intermediate exam. Fire Chief/Paramedic Marc Harpam said, "We are proud of the achievements that these two individuals have earned. This is a huge accomplishment and shows the true dedication that both have toward their profession and their passion to provide emergency care to the citizens of McCook."

Carpentry students help build custom home

Carpentry students at the Northwest Kansas Technical College at Goodland have completed another custom-built home. The 1,610 square-foot home has three bedrooms, a utility room, built-in cabinets in the hallway and well-organized closets. The master suite includes a private bath equipped with bathtub and his and her multi-level sinks. Eleven students, including Travis Votapka, and their instructor, Robert Woodrow, designed and built the home. Travis is the son of Dan and Lisa Votapka. He has accepted a job with Moul's Modern Builders of Ogallala, Neb. Those interested in seeing the home may contact the office at (800) 316-4127 or go to the college web site at "http://www.nwtkc.org".

Rexford News

By Sondra Barnett

Hello to all who read the Rexford news. I'm going to be the new correspondent, following Zula Horinek who has been doing a fine job of it. This simply tells me that I have big shoes to fill (figuratively speaking). Doris Jean Oliver returned from two weeks in the mountains, where she was working on her cabin. However, the outside work didn't get completed because it rained every day. On Friday evening, approximately 75 people attended the closing program, highlighting the accomplishments of the 31 young people that were enrolled in the Creative Arts Camp held at the Shepherd's Staff at Rexford. Campers from Kansas, Texas and Oklahoma ranged in age from 8-15. The camp has been an attraction since 1994. A group of 17 teens and seven adult sponsors from this area attended the annual Teen Retreat at Merritt Reservoir, near Valentine, Neb., sponsored by the Berean Church of Broken Bow, Neb., and is very well organized. Over 100 came from South Dakota, Nebraska and Kansas. Besides having a great speaker from West Virginia, there were water sports, fishing, music and other activities. They had a wonderful time. Cleda Moeder's niece, Ann and Bob Schmiedler of Wichita spent Saturday and Sunday visiting her. On Saturday afternoon, they met Tim and Shelly Moeder and family, and Buck Harper at the Country Club in Colby, where the men played golf.

Hulda Wark underwent foot surgery and is doing very well. On Sunday evening, she and Sondra Barnett went to Colby to the home of Vic and Velma Rasmussen for a cookout. Velma and Hulda's brother, Eugene and his wife Gerry Rall from Iowa were visiting. There were also several families present of the nieces and nephews who live in the area.

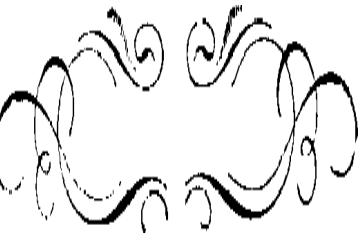

Social Hour Club was held at the Sondra Barnett home. Members present were Jean Hawkins, Eileen Dible, Zula Horenik, Vesta Roth, Cleda Moeder, Hulda Wark, Deb Stepper, Grace Cheney and Sondra Barnett. Three guests also joined the group: Velma Barnett, Freda Ketchum, and Evelyn Johnson. Bingo prize winners were Velma Barnett, Cleda Moeder, Grace Cheney, and Vesta Roth. Since Sondra collects "bees" (novelty type), the hostess prize was given to the person to guess closest to the number of bees in Sondra's kitchen. Jean Hawkins was the winner. The actual number is 83. Koffee Klatch has been a very popular meeting place on Friday morning for the women of Rexford. It is always great to see more ladies. Some who don't attend regularly are invited to drop in from time to time. Those present on Friday were Dolores Dible, Eunice Sanford,

Doris Jean Oliver, Margaret Arasmith, Sondra Barnett, Deb Stepper, Hulda Wark, Vesta Roth, and Berneda Zoberst

Rexford Bridge Club met with JoAnn Vaughn as hostess. Bobbie Young, Deb Stepper, and Berneda Zoberst won prizes.

There are two groups that like to play cards that meet at the Red Barn. Monday players are known as "The Barn Swallows" and Thursday's (a smaller group) are called "Come On Down." They all like to play pinocle and would welcome others. There is a 50-cent charge to pay for the snacks that are served and there is a birthday party at the end of each month. School enrollment for Golden Plains will be Aug. 10-11 from 9a.m. to noon and from 1 to 4 p.m. The Royal Neighbors only met once this month. In August they will get back on schedule, meeting the second and fourth Thursdays of each month.

We are very thankful for the lovely rain we are receiving right now.
