Rexford News

By Sondra Barnett

We've enjoyed the nice cool weather around here. There have been a couple of showers, for which we are thankful, but always praying for more rain.

The ladies of the Rexford Bridge Club met at the home of Berneda Zoberst. Guests were Doris Jean Oliver and Helen Karls. Prizes were won by Joy Davis, Marguerette Edmondson and Bobbie Young. Joy Davis will be the hostess on Wednesday, Sept. 8.

Those attending Koffee Klatch on Friday were Berneda Zoberst, Vesta Roth, Delores Dible, Doris Jean Oliver, Deb Stepper, Eunice Sanford, Freda Ketchum, Grace Cheney, Margaret Arasmith, Fran Leach, Liz Rall, Hulda Wark, Tabitha Barnett, Tiffany Barnett and Sondra Barnett

Travis and Jessica Vaughn had a new baby boy on July 29 at the Hays Medical Center. Hunter Norris, who was named for his late great grandfather, has a big sister, Hallie, who is 2 1/2. He weighed 8 pounds and 5 ounces. Grandparents are Steve and Linda Vaughn, Colby, and Kim and Joyce Tice, Hoxie. Great-grandparents are JoAnne Vaughn, and June O'Hara, Colby; Norma Tice, Hoxie; and Reynold and Hilda Moellering, Oakley.

Cleda Moeder took her grandson, Taylor Moeder, of Colby fishing for three days. They went to Sheridan State Fishing Lake and caught some Blue Gills. They enjoyed getting in one last fishing trip before school starts.

Cousins Tiffany and Tabitha Barnett spent the week with Sondra Barnett. They did some painting, reading, playing games and just visiting. The girls are nine years old and are from Holcomb and Liberal, respectively. They really enjoyed the freedom they were given to walk around town and play in the park.

Doris Jean Oliver and her two grandsons, Adam and Andy Lambing, attended the funeral of Delbert Finley in Eldorado on Saturday. He was the step-father of Tom Lambing, who is Doris Jean's son-in-law, and is married to Mary.

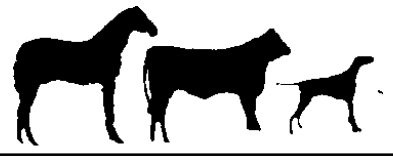

Our condolences to the families of Norma Dible, whose funeral was on Thursday, and Ken Dible, whose service was held on Friday.

Golden Plains Schools will begin classes on Thursday. The teachers are having In-Service for several days prior to the beginning of school.

Hats off to Jennifer Scott and Paula McDaniel for their generosity to the community in sharing the produce from their garden for several summers now! Thank you, Paula and Jennifer, for making our town a great place to live!
