People in Our Community

Mary Lou Olson, society editor mlolson@nwkansan.com

David and Laken Shuler have moved from Grand Junction, Colo., to North Platte, Neb., to be closer to his mother, Rita Garver of Oberlin, and other relatives.

Jerald and Elaine Leitner visited recently with their grandson, Dustin Sullivan, of Hays; Jeremy Bryant and Jason, also Gary Bryant, of Manhattan, and cousins, Bill and Lucille Leitner of Bennington.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Wolters attended the funeral services of John Pianalto at the Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Atwood on Monday. They also visited Dorothy Wolters at the Good Samaritan Center in Atwood.

Gail and Kay Marcuson spent the weekend visiting Rick, Sally and Grady Marcuson in Overland Park. They also visited their granddaughter, Leslie Marcuson, in Topeka. En route home, they attended funeral services on Monday morning in Manhattan for Elizabeth Linn, who died Thursday. Her husband, Raymond Linn, was a 1938 graduate of Decatur Community High School, and a cousin of Mr. Marcuson.

Word was received of the death of Wallace Hampton, 81, of Wichita, on Friday. His wife is the former Donna Tuttle, daughter of the late Steve and Mabel (Hanson) Tuttle, natives of Decatur County. Funeral Mass was held Monday morning at St. John's Catholic Church at 10 a.m. Besides his wife, Donna, survivors include six sons; four daughters; a sister; 23 grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren. Memorials were established to Guadalupe Clinic, 940 S. St. Francis, Wichita, Kan., 67211. Mrs. Hampton is a cousin of Ivis Hanson of Jennings, Mary Lou Olson of Herndon, and Cecil Hess of Oberlin.

Esther Ready left Saturday after spending a week with her parents, John and Muriel Ready. Muriel Ready is a resident at Decatur County Good Samaritan Center and mail will reach her at 108 E. Ash, Oberlin, Kan., 67749.

Houseguests of Ethel Railsback over the weekend were all of her children, Marian Railsback, Fort Collins, Colo.; Tom Railsback, Great Falls, Mont.; and Mike and Mary Dicke, Wichita. They came for the 100th anniversary of Prairie Chapel Church. Tom remained to spend a week with his mother.

Mary Waldo suffered a broken ankle in a fall at her home Friday morning. She underwent surgery at Community Hospital in McCook.

Mail will reach her at 117 S. Marks, Oberlin, Kan., 67749.

Herschel and Jody Betts were guests at the reunion of Concordia High School Class of 1959 on Saturday evening, at the American Legion in Concordia. Former players and the coaches of the league championship football team that season were honored during the evening.

Kay and Andy Chambers, Luetta Pollnow, and Sam and Diana Steinmetz went to Las Vegas, Nev., on Thursday, then attended the wedding of Amanda Chambers and Shane Johnson in Belmont, Nev., on Saturday. They returned home Sunday. Among others attending the wedding were Dave and Patty Chambers of Culbertson, Neb. The newlyweds will make their home in Dodge City.

Weekend guests of Mildred Holmdahl, and Mike and Janeil Jensen and granddaughter, Shani Guzan, were Sherrill and Janet Vermillion, and Jason and Michelle Daniels, Lakyn and Braylon, all of Eldorado, and Lori, Jordan and Caiden Lawn of Kearney, Neb.

Winning highs in pinochle at Golden Age Center the past week were Wilma May, Dewaine Stapp, Donna Kent, Doris Miller, Myrtle Waldo and Lawrence Wenger. Lows were won by Dorothy Moore, Doris Miller, Barb Solko, Aleen Van Vleet and Floyd Edgett. Pitch highs went to Floyd Edgett and Doris Miller with lows going to Wilma May and Aleen Van Vleet. Merle Shirley and Charlotte Meints were bridge winners. Senior bridge will be held at 1 p.m. Thursday.

Leslie Marcuson of Oberlin and Richard Gonzales of Topeka discussed their impressions of Cuba, which they traveled as part of a summer college course, on Tuesday evening at Stoffer Science Hall at Washburn University. Leslie is the daughter of Brad and Elaine Marcuson of Oberlin and is majoring in history with a concentration on secondary education.
