Mary Lou Olson, society editor mlolson@nwkansas.com

Bill and Dorothy Woods returned home Thursday from a 2 1/2 week vacation. They visited their daughter, Debbie and Mark Crider, in Oak Ridge, Tenn., and helped their grandson, Nicholas and Amy Crider, celebrate their recent wedding, which took place on the Island of St. Lucia on July 15. They also visited their other daughter, Barb and Barry Brooks, in Atlanta, Ga. While there they visited their granddaughter, Amber and Matt Norman and Tate and made the acquaintance of their infant son, Cole.

Bob and Marian Fraker received word of the death of his sister, Melba Jenkins, 83, of Waco, Texas, on Sept. 27. She was a 1940 graduate of Decatur Community High School. Funeral services were held in Waco on Thursday. Among survivors are two daughters, Susan and Sherri, and families; two brothers, Bob Fraker, Oberlin; and Dennis Fraker, Denver; and three sisters, Fern Torrey and Shirley Ott, Denver; and Phyllis Bay, Phoenix, Ariz.

Eugene and Beverly Witt, Danbury; Annette Troyer, Ellinwood; Gary and Thelma Witt, Culbertson, Neb.; and Dennis and Pat Wurm, Anita Hirsch, and Vernon and Jeanette Diederich attended memorial services for Bobby Wurm in Eaton, Colo., on Saturday. He died at his home in Eaton on Thursday. A memorial service will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday at Decatur County Good Samaritan Center, where his mother, Iris Wurm, is a resident.

Clayton Jording of Medford, Ore., and Phil and Marj Law of Lakewood, Colo., visited recently with their mother, Fern Jording. Several classmates and friends of Clayton visited him at the Jording home on Saturday, Sept. 25.

Chuck and Diane Frickey returned Sept. 24 from a visit with his son, the Rev. Mark Frickey and his wife, Tonya, at Ancram, N.Y. They also spent three days in Quebec City, Canada. En route they visited her sisters, Kim Reger and Mary Jo Berry, in the Kansas City area, and this cousin, Charles Hinkle, in West Lafayette, Ind.

Visitors last Monday evening of Jerald and Elaine Leitner were Duane and Leona Ward of Ponca City, Okla., winter friends from Texas. The two couples spent from Tuesday to Friday in the foothills of Loveland, Colo. En route home the Leitners visited her brother, Claude and Doris Runyan, at Greeley, Colo., on Friday and Saturday morning, then were weekend guests of John and Karla Sullivan and Jerad at Colby.

Richard and Wendy Ufford and Shannon of Overbrook were weekend guests of his parents, Calvin and JoAnn Ufford.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Wolters called on Dorothy Wolters at the Good Samaritan Center in Atwood on Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Fernando Peña and Ian were Saturday callers at the Wolters home and also attended the Mini Sappa Antique Thresher and Engine Show.

Dan and Kathy Kelling of Fountain, Colo., visited on Sunday with her sister and niece, Marianna Bendon and Karla Jones. They were en route home from Springfield, Mo.

Alyssa Montgomery, daughter of Ron and Gina Montgomery, received ninth in Class 12, with her crossbred market steer at the 72nd Kansas Junior Livestock Show held from Sept. 24-27 at the Kansas Coliseum in Wichita. The statewide event featured 646 4-H and FFA members from 85 counties who exhibited 1,218 head of livestock.

Martha Nemeth was honored with a farewell dinner on Tuesday evening at the Frontier Restaurant. Invited guests included: Sharon Smith, Curtis, Neb.; Margaret Lund, Hays; Ethel Schroeder, Sally Henningson, Mary Lohofener, Barbara Young, Judy Ostmeier, Beth Sebaugh, Alice Shirley, Dorothy Moore, Joan Neidenthal, Ila Ray, Connie Cramer, Carol Witt, Carol Morford, Pat Glenn and Patty Brown. She is moving to Topeka to be near her daughter and family, Mary and Tom Heald, Adam and Rachel.

Dane Anderson, a freshman at Washburn University, advanced to and competed in the quarterfinal round in the junior varsity division of Parliamentary Debate, at the forensics tournament in the Buck Stops Here Invitational Tournament at Truman State University in Kirksville, Mo. He also placed eighth in the Parliamentary Speaker awards. He is the son of Kary and Jackie Anderson of Oberlin.

Erin Musgrave, daughter of Dale and Tammy Musgrave of Ong, Neb., was crowned 2004 Homecoming Queen during half-time at Sandy Creek Public School, in Fairfield, Neb., on Friday evening. She is the daughter of Dale and Tammy (Jennings) Musgrave and her mother is a 1981 graduate of Decatur Community High School. Attending from this area were Lee and Judy Ploussard, Oberlin; and Lawrence and Lila Jennings, Jennings.

Mike and Janeil Jensen, Shani Guzan, and Mildred Holmdahl spent Sunday in Great Bend with Sherri Ayers and family to help Shani celebrate her 17th birthday. Winning highs in pinochle at Golden Age Center the past week were Wilma May, Dewaine Stapp, Dorothy Moore, Floyd Edgett, Doris Miller, Veanna Orr and Elden Haas. Lows were won by Henry Edgett, Vivian Bishop, Veanna Orr, Doris Miller, Dorothy Moore, Aleen Van Vleet and Lora Zwickle. Pitch highs went to Floyd Edgett and Dorothy Moore with lows going to Doris Miler and Aleen Van Vleet. Merle Shirley, Marie McKisson and Barbara Young were bridge winners.

Recent guests in the home of Don and Charlotte Meints were her brother, John Rowberry, and his wife, Jan, of Memphis, Tenn. While here, John attended his 50th class reunion in McCook. Other guests during the past week were Donna and Rod Carlson, Grand Island, Neb., and Mark Walinder, Arvada, Colo.

Norma Richards attended the 50th anniversary reception and dinner which honored her sister and husband, Frances and Eugene Courange, at the home of Penny and Lonnie Salogan in Pratt on Saturday. It was hosted by their daughters, Kathy and Jeff Norland and family, and Eugena and Lindy Tuttle, Tribune, and Penny and Lonnie Salogan, Pratt. Among others present were another sister, Vi Foster, and Pat Hall, Brighton, Colo.; and Mr. Courange's four sisters and nieces and nephews of Hoisington and Great Bend. Mail will reach the Couranges at 905 W. Blaine, Pratt, Kan., 67124.

Spec. Terry and Crystal Rose, Caleb, Rosa and Jacob of Junction City were weekend guests of his mother and her husband, Mary Lou and Gene Plotts. He is stationed at Fort Riley. Additional guests at the Plotts home for a cookout Saturday evening were Buddy Plotts, Goodland, and Julie Plotts.

Dick and Gerri Harrison of Kailua-Kona, Hawaii, visited Jim and Linda Hollowell en route to South Dakota and Arkansas to visit family and friends. Jim and the Harrisons have been friends since junior high school. The Harrisons also visited with fellow retired railroad worker, Al Leiker, owner of ThunderCord Guitars, in Norton. Derrick and Kristy Hollowell and son, Uriah, of Petrolia, Texas, also visited their Oberlin parents over Labor Day weekend, as well as family and friends in Denver.

Children's musical set

The Wichita Children's Theater will present a musical version of "The Three Billy Goats Gruff" at 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, Oct. 14, at the St. Francis High School Auditorium.

This version of the well-known tale portrays the story of three billy goats who want to cross the bridge to eat the grass on the other side, but the grouchy troll bully under the bridge is determined not to allow that. After some quick thinking, they make a friend and all ends well.

The program is sponsored by Western Plains Arts Association. Admission is by season ticket or $8 for adults at the door. There is no charge for children through sixth grade who attend with a paying adult.
