Antique Guild formed by Oberlin businesses

Antique businesses in Decatur County have banded together to form the Decatur County Antique Guild, which promotes the sale of quality antique items of almost any Gary Anderson, owner of the LandMark Inn, said the group was formed to let people know that Decatur County is the "Antique Crossroads of America." The guild promotes the county's 15 antique stores in Oberlin, as well as one at

He said that through advertising on radio, television and newspapers, they are bringing people to town who might not have stopped in

"Not all the businesses in the guild sell antiques," he said, "like Addleman Drug, the store has an antique soda fountain, and we try to get people to take a day trip and come

He said that two of the business owners moved to Oberlin from Colorado during the past year.

He said the group plans to put signs, mounted on old machinery, outside of town to let travelers know Oberlin has antiques.

The members meet once a month to talk about how they can work together, rather than against, each elevator in Norcatur.

fered crop losses from natural disasters may apply for U.S. Farm Ser-

John C. Vogt, farm loan manager in Norton, said farmers in Rawlins and Norton counties also became eligible under federal law, which provides that farmers in counties bordering on those which have been designated for disaster assistance alsol may qualify. He said applications will be accepted until April 20.

"Loans covering physical and/or production losses may be made at 3.75 percent interest rate, and are scheduled for repayment as rapidly will hold a matching fund benefit meal from 12:30 to 2 p.m. on Sunday at the Norcatur City Hall dining

Gospel Band will present concerts

The gospel group has been sing-agers in the mid-'60s, the Crusaders ing will be taken.

ing together for 38 years. As teen-grew to be one of the Midwest's turkey dinner will be served from 11

The Oberlin Arts and Humanities

Commission will sponsor the Holiday Arts and Crafts Show on Satur-

Lightning during a storm Thursday evening in Oberlin, which the phone system at the LandMark Inn and Decatur County Title and day, Nov. 27, at The Gateway.

A benefit old-fashioned ham and nity.

Church in Atwood.

fray expenses for the Norcatur necessary.

vice Agency emergency loans.

Emergency loans available

Matching fund benefit Sunday

The Norcatur Royal Neighbors Newsheet and will be matched by

Proceeds will be used to help detions will be accepted, but are not

Crusaders coming to Atwood

The Crusaders and the Crusaders best-known gospel groups. In the at 9:45 a.m. and 3 p.m. on Sunday, time, sharing the stage with south-

Oct. 17, at the United Methodist ern gospel groups like the Black-

Benefit dinner set at Lebanon

a.m. to 1:30 p.m. on Sunday for to Kearney, Neb., for kidney dialy-

Donnalea Harrison at the Presbyte- sis while awaiting a kidney transrian Church in Lebanon, Neb., plant. Proceeds will go to help with

Arts and crafts show planned sponsored by the Lebanon commu-travel and medical expenses.

Lightning strikes businesses brought very high winds, damaged Mark were also damaged during the Quartet.

Decatur County farmers who suf- as feasible, consistent with the pay," he said.

The group plans to go to Norcatur this month to visit an antique store and have a cookout. Plans are to expand their ad campaign during the holiday season.

Colored brochures with maps will direct people to all the antique stores, as well as other Oberlin businesses. Copies are available in all of the businesses and the Chamber of Commerce office.

Members include Addleman Drug Store, 137 S. Penn; Blackwater Antiques, 707 S. Antelope: Cabin Antiques, 156 S. Penn; Cobwebs Antiques and Collectibles, 3 miles north and 3/4 mile west of Oberlin; Nanny's Attic, 211 N. Penn; Oberlin Mercantile Co., 187 S. Penn; Old Czech Country Antiques and Primitives, 211 S. Penn; Just on Time, 802 N. Penn; and Times Past, 159 S. Penn, in Oberlin.

Other businesses listed in the antique guide include C & R Treasures, 104 N. Beaver; Grandma's Glass House, 505 S. Antelope; Jim's Odds and Ends, 711 E. Frontier Parkway; Seeds of Creation, 254 S. Penn; Trader Horn, 1004 W. Frontier Parkway; and Traer Traders, 119 S. Penn, all at Oberlin; and Red Roof Ped'lar, three blocks east of the applicant's reasonable ability to Farm Service Agency loans covering physical losses may be used to replace installations, equipment, livestock, or buildings (including

Those loans covering production losses may be used to buy feed, seed, fertilizer, livestock or to make payments on real estate and equipment

"Funds can also be used for other

For details, contact Dorothy

Woods at (785) 475-2384 or Lora

Arnold at (785) 693-4445. Reserva-

'70s, they started traveling full-

She is making three trips a week

A few spaces are still available.

Two television sets at the Land-

For registration information, contact Mary Henzel at (785) 475-3329 or Ella Betts at (785) 475-3557.

essential operating and living expenses," Mr. Vogt said.

the Royal Neighbors.

homes), lost through this disaster.

Club News

Members share memories

27 meeting of Pi Alpha Club when members planned a trip to visit the "Satisfiers" Cookie Factor at Selden. However, due to the rain, the trip was canceled.

given by Mrs. Meitl for devotions. Ten members were present and told of summer memories. Elaine Votapka will be hostess.

Rosella Meitl hosted the Sept. Bryan won the hostess prize and the hostess served "Satisfiers" cookies for refreshments.

The Oct. 11 meeting will be at the Old Bohemian Hall where Robyn Rouse, instructor for the "Heaven's Grocery Store" was Creative Movement Gymnastics program for children, will demonstrate gymnastics. Janette

Environment meeting set

The Special Committee on Environment, an 11-member committee of the Kansas Legislature studying natural resource issues, will meet at the Western Cooperative Electric Association Building, 635 S. 13th Street, in WaKeeney from 7 to 9 p.m. next Wednesday, Oct. 13, and from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Thursday,

The panel will study a proposed program to convert land currently irrigated into non-irrigated land use. Last spring, a bill in the Legislature, would have established an irrigation assistance grant program to help water right owners with the conversion from irrigated agriculture to dryland agriculture, pasture, or other non-irrigated use.

The committee also will review the economic impact, at the state and local levels, of not maintaining the recreational water pool level at Cedar Buff Reservoir. It will study the voting procedures and privileges of the Kansas Water Authority.

Public comment is welcome. The committee encourages written testimony, with at least 25 copies provided for the committee and staff. Kansans who want to present verbal or written comments may contact Raney Gilliland, Mary Galligan, or Amy VanHouse at the Legislative Research Department, (785) 296-3181.

Oktoberfest is Saturday

tion is planned on Saturday by the Atwood Chamber of Commerce.

The annual celebration has been renamed Atwood's Autumn Fest this year. The Ol' Depot will have demonstrations, including a Creative Memories workshop from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. A craft fair is planned in the former NAPA building downtown from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Events will include street games, a farmers' market, kiddy carnival and train rides, coins-in-the-corn tank and Drag races will be held from 2 to 626-9630.

The annual Oktoberfest celebra- 4:30 p.m. at the airport, sponsored by the Atwood Ambassadors. The group has also scheduled a "Smokin' on the Beaver" barbecue competition to begin at noon, a hog roast from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m., and a dance from 8 p.m. to midnight.

A free movie will be shown at the Jayhawk Theater at 4:30 p.m.

All Ambassador events will be held at the airport. For entry fees and registration information for Ambassador activities, call (785) 626-9629 evening, 626-3344 or 626-9695. For chamber-sponsored events, call

Kansas State Fair results given

Four Decatur County 4-H members captured purple ribbons at the Kansas State Fair, while others brought back blue, red and white. Fair winners included:

Purple: Kendra Anderson, Jared Marcuson, fashion revue; Anne Wasson, clothing; Sarah Marcuson,

Blue: Rebecca Helm, clothing; Jared Marcuson, foods, fashion revue; Sarah Marcuson, Jared Marcuson, Gatlin Reichert, photography; Anne Wasson, fashion revue; Cameron Nedland, Hunter Nedwood Brothers and the Stamps land, photography;

Red: Andy Dempewolf, Jared Marcuson, woodworking; Jacob Larue, Gage Reichert, photography; Hunter Nedland, Christian Rittman, foods; Dakota Soderound, entomol-White: Cameron Nedland, foods.

Participant: Sabrina Dellere, trail, Western horsemanship, pole bending, barrel racing, flag race, breakaway, team roping; Rebecca Helm, Sarah Marcuson, arts and crafts; Jacob Helm, family and consumer sciences judging; Rebecca Helm, family and consumer sciences judging.

There is no charge, but an offer- Marine band to perform

"The President's Own," the of Congress in 1798, is America's Saturday, Oct. 16, at the Colby

Community Building. For free tickets, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Pat Ziegelmeier, Colby Community Building, 1255 South Range, Colby, Kan., 67701.

The band, established by an Act

United States Marine Corps Band, oldest professional musical organiwill present a concert at 7:30 p.m. on zation. It has performed at every presidential inauguration since that of Thomas Jefferson in 1801. John Philip Sousa directed the band from

The concert is sponsored by the Colby Free Press and the Western Plains Arts Association.

Annual Model Train Show set

The fifth annual Northwest Kansas Model Train Show and Swap Meet will be held from 9 a.m. to 5 noon to 4 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 24, at the Colby Community Building.

There will be operating layouts and vendors selling model railroad- Club.

ing-related items.

Admission will be $3 per person, with kids under 5 free, and families p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 23, and from of four or more $10. Lunch will be available.

The event is sponsored by the Northwest Kansas Model Railroad

Congratulations!

Ward Drug Store is proud to announce that Valisha Castle has passed her Pharmacy Technician Certification Board Exam and is now a Certified Pharmacy Technician. Please stop by and congratulate

WARD DRUG STORE

Kurt Vollertsen |

Valisha.

Wednesday, October 6, 2004 THE OBERLIN HERALD 11A

Rock-a-Chickamauga will honor explorers

The Prairie Museum of Art and History at Colby will be hosting Rock-a-Chickamauga: Territorial Days on the High Plains, on Sunday.

The event is being held to mark the bicentennial of the start of the Lewis and Clark Expedition and the 150th anniversary, or sesquicentennial, of Kansas becoming a territory Festivities will begin at noon and there is no admission charge. The Colby High School cheerleaders will be serving lunch as a fund-The day will include historical performances on the stage by Meriwether Lewis and William Clark, performed by Phillip Thomas and William Worley. Joyce Thierer, accompanied by Pepper, her horse, as "Greedy Gut," will be Grower, a Native American woman from an earth lodge culture. Children help her build a travois for Pepper to pull for the performance. There will also be try-on costumes, Native American crafts and other activities for the kids. He-wo-we-dus, a Chevenne brave, portrayed by Ken Weidner of Dighton, will talk about Native American life from the tipi. Kirk Shapland, as Young Buffalo Bill, will set up a buffalo hunter's camp, and trapper camp. Lon Sowers will site prairiemuseum.org. be giving rides in his oxen-drawn Folk art demonstrations will include spinning by Pam Sager, bobbin lace making by Sonia Domsch of Atwood, quilting by the Prairie Museum quilters and leatherworking by Scott Sheets.

There will be musical entertainment in the Lone Star Church by the McLemore Family, Larry Booth and the Pearce Family of Wallace. Several new temporary exhibits will be shown in the Garvey Educational Thomas County was organized in 1885 and was named for Gen. George H. Thomas, a Civil Warhero of the Battle of Chickamauga. The Thomas County townships were named for Kansas soldiers killed at Chickamauga. As the town of Colby was laid out, some streets were even named for battles and towns where Thomas fought: Chickamauga, Mission Ridge, Franklin and Nashville. For a short time, there was talk about changing the name of the town from Colby to Chickamauga.

Rock-a-Chickamauga Day is one of four events in Kansas sponsored by the Kansas Sesquicentennial Commission.

For details, contact the museum at 1905 S. Franklin, Colby, Kan., 67701, (785) 462-4590, or praiand Mark Berry will have a trader riem@st-tel.net or check the web-

Soldier honored with medal

Specialist Terry Rose Jr., has redriver. turned after serving a year in Iraq and is stationed at Fort Riley. He is the son of Mary Lou Plotts of Ob-He is serving with Bravo Company, 1st Battalion, 34th Armor, United States Army. He was awarded the Purple Heart on July 3 for wounds received in ac-

Commendation Medal for excep- Jacob, are making their home in tional service while serving as a tank Junction City.

nical knowledge and hard

Terry Rose

work contributed immensely to the brigade's success during Operation Iraqi Freedom. His performance, dedication to duty and selfless service reflect great credit upon himself, the Devil Brigade and the United States Army."

He and his wife, Crystal, tion. He also received the Army and their children, Caleb, Rosa and

Patronage refunds paid

Western Kansas Agricultural Credit in assets including loans to young, Association paid out $700,000 in beginning, and small farmers. patronage refunds to members last month on interest paid by members during 2003.

The money comes from the association's interest income, crop insurpatronage to farmer members.

Colby, is the leading agricultural $90 billion in combined assets. lender in the nine counties of north-

The board of Farm Credit of west Kansas, with over $170 million

Farm Credit makes loans for the purchase or refinance of farm, ranch or agribusiness real estate and facilities, as well as to finance farm operations, livestock and equipment. ance sales, and fee income. Over the Farmers and ranchers who borrow past seven years, Farm Credit has from Farm Credit own the associareturned nearly $4 million in cash tion. It is an independent unit of the Farm Credit System, the nation's The association, with offices in leading agricultural lender with over

Affordable Health Insurance

Choose your own Physician

www.HealthInsurance2004.com (316) 687-3658

Underwritten by Reserve National Insurance Company AHI-3-KS

Florida Hurricane RELIEF FUND

RISE AND REBUILD

TO DONATE: 1-800-FL-HELP-1 www.FLAHurricaneFund.org

This fund established by Governor Jeb Bush

ALL DONATIONS ARE TAX DEDUCTIBLE. A COPY OF THE OFFICIAL REGISTRATION AND FINANCIAL INFORMATION MAY BE OBTAINED FROM THE DIVISION OF CONSUMER SERVICES BY CALLING TOLL-FREE 800-435-7352 WITHIN THE STATE. REGISTRATION DOES NOT IMPLY ENDORSEMENT, APPROVAL OR RECOMMENDATION BY THE STATE. REGISTRATION NUMBER IS CH8536.