Devils roast Buffaloes

Students had something to celebrate Friday especially after crushing the Atwood Buffalo 43 to zero in the homecoming game.

Students started to celebrate before the football game with an assembly and then a parade downtown. All week students from the classes got together to decorate their floats for the parade. The theme was Greek mythology and the sophomores won the competition. The sophomore class also won the window decorating competition in the cafeteria with the theme of candy.

Kim Ketterl was named queen and Gannon Reichert was named king.

After the game the students danced the night away in the cafeteria.
