SHERIFF'S BLOTTER

The Decatur County Sheriff's Office reported these calls:
• Arrested Leslie Nolette, 39, on Tuesday, Oct. 12 on a Norton County warrant for a worthless check. She was taken to Norton County.
• Arrested Gerry Rilinger, 22 on Saturday for having a motorcycle with an altered vehicle inspection number. Undersheriff Michael French said he stopped Mr. Rilinger, Sabetha, at Penn and Maple because there was no plate on the motorcycle. Mr. Rilinger said he could produce tags. Undersheriff French said he noticed some numbers etched in at the top of the steering column.

Mr. Rilinger was released. On Saturday, he showed up in the sheriff's office to give more information and was arrested. He bonded out that afternoon. The bike has been impounded.

POLICE BLOTTER

These calls were reported by the Oberlin Police Department last week:
• Worked an accident at 3:20 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 9, when James Smith, 44, driving a 1992 Chevy Caprice hit the back end of a 2002 Dodge pickup. The truck was driven by Delores Mongeau, 47, who had stopped in the school parking lot to load passengers. There was minor damage to both vehicles.
• Received a call around 7:40 p.m. on Tuesday, Oct. 12, when Rebecca Alstrom, 48, driving a 2002 Dodge Neon, backed into a Toyota pickup belonging to Jeremy Jensen parked in the alley between York and Griffith. Police Chief Wade Lockhart said Ms. Alstrom was trying to back down the alley to the south because there was a vehicle blocking the alley to the north.

Obituaries

Ethlyn 'Tommy' Shaw

Ethlyn "Tommy" Shaw, 70, a native of Jennings, died as the result of a ruptured aortic aneurysm at Tucson, Ariz., on Oct. 12, 2004.

She was born Sept. 20, 1934, in Jennings, the second daughter of Tom and Mae Sejkora. She attended Jennings schools and after graduating from high school, she attended the University of Kansas in Lawrence.

She married Carol Shaw of Galena in September of 1955. After both graduated from the University of Kansas in 1956, they were employed in Washington state. She worked in the bacteriology department at Kadlec Hospital in Richland. After her retirement, she was head of the Nuclear Medicine Department until 1997. She had lived in Tucson for 19 months to be close to her son, Douglas.

She was a member of the Disciples of Christ Church in Kennewick, Wash.

Survivors include her sons, Steve and Roxanne Shaw, Tom and Kaylin, Parker, Colo., and Douglas and Tammy Shaw, Brittany, Matthew, Samuel, and David, Tucson, Ariz.; and a sister, Betty Bouts, 586 S. Carr Street, Lakewood, Colo., 80226.

A memorial service was held Saturday morning at Christ's Church of Tucson.

Darwin L. Smith

Darwin L. Smith, 86, a 1937 graduate of Jennings High School, died Thursday, Oct. 14, 2004, at the Greeley County Hospital in Tribune.

He was born Sept. 5, 1918, in Jennings, the son of Waverland "Ray" and Myrtle (Kerr) Smith. He served in the Army Air Corps from 1942 through 1945.

He married Mary Carlton on June 9, 1946, at Jennings. Since 1950, they made their home in Sharon Springs, where he worked for Foster Lumber as a lumber dealer, then owned and operated Sharon Springs Lumber until his retirement.

He was a member of the United Methodist Church, Methodist Men, Rotary, American Legion, Sharon Springs City Council, and Wallace County Senior Citizens. He was also a fifth-grade Sunday School teacher.

Survivors include his wife, Mary Smith, Sharon Springs; five daughters, Lois and Bryan Pearce, Wallace; Ellen and Alan Roop, Garden City; Sarah and Doug Alt, Salina; Lora and Dave Rochholz, Minot, N.D.; and Emily and Bruce Bolen, Sharon Springs; a son, Lewis and Susan Smith, Phillipsburg; 15 grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents; three brothers, Wilmer, Harry and Ray Smith; three sisters, Bernice Hunter, Valarie Bainter, Dottie Gates, and a grandson, Garth Roop.

Funeral services were held Monday morning at the United Methodist Church in Sharon Springs. The Rev. Gary Davison and the Rev. Paul McNall officiated and burial with military honors was in the Sharon Springs Cemetery.

Memorials may be made to the United Methodist Church or Prairie Manor Good Samaritan Center. Contributions may be sent to Koons Funeral Home, 211 North Main, Goodland, Kan., 67735-1555.

Lydia Jane Weber

Lydia Jane Weber, 84, a longtime resident of Selden, died Oct. 15, 2004, at Citizens Medical Center in Colby.

She was born Feb. 15, 1920, in Kassler, Colo., the daughter of Robert McIvreen Jr. and Lydia Rose (Woodward) McIvreen. She attended Jefferson County Grade School and graduated from Littleton High School in 1938. She worked in two war plants, Hecco Manufacturing at Littleton, and Remington Arms in Denver, during World War II.

She married Bartholomew "B.J." Weber on Feb. 19, 1946 in Park. She worked with her husband in their Phillips 66 station for 37 years.

Survivors include a son, Bernard Joe and Jacque Weber, Derby; two daughters, Brenda and Bob Waggoner, Colby; and Barbara and Mark Schuette, Levant; a half-sister, Denzel Roberta Blackstock, Washington state; and five grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; a brother, Robert McIvreen III.; a sister, Verma McIvreen and half-sister, Ruth Girard.

Mass of Christian Burial was held Tuesday morning at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Selden. The Rev. George Kochuvlikkakkam officiated and burial was in the Selden Cemetery.

A memorial was established in her name. Contributions may be sent to Pauls Funeral Home, 121 N. Penn, Oberlin, Kan., 67749, or Pauls Funeral Home at Selden.

Corrections

In the Oct. 13 edition of The Oberlin Herald, a story about the flu vaccine reported incorrectly that the Decatur County Hospital bought their vaccine through Ward Drug Store. Ward Drug purchased vaccine from the hospital for the Good Samaritan Center. Hospital Administrator Lynn Doeden said the hospital has its own supplier. This was a reporter's error.
