

THE OBERLIN HERALD — People in Our Community

Mary Lou Olson, society editor
mlolson@nwkansas.com

Betty Miller of Salina came Wednesday and is visiting her daughter and family, Angela and Kendall Peacock and Emily; her father, Harold Hill, and her brother, Bobby Hill. She came especially to help her father celebrate his 81st birthday.

Winning highs in pinochle at Golden Age Center the past week were Veanna Orr, Max Carman, Kelva Swindler, Merle Shirley, Lawrence Wenger, Dale Votapka, Aleen Van Vleet, and Vivian Bishop. Lows were won by Donna Kent, Henry Edgett, Doris Miller, Alvina Unger and Floyd Edgett. Pitch highs went to Dale Votapka and Floyd Edgett with lows going to Henry Edgett and Doris Miller. Phyllis Lohoefer and Phyllis Berry were bridge winners.

Skip and Rita Fuchs of Oxford, Neb., and Karla and John Sullivan and Jerad of Colby visited at the home of Jerald and Elaine Leitner following the funeral of Chauncey Hafner on Thursday.

The Rev. Gene and Helen Gee have conducted a series of revival services since Oct. 10, which included services at Grace Nazarene Church in Cheyenne, Wyo.; the Church of the Nazarene in Torrington, Wyo., and the Nazarene Church in Goodland. Joining them on Thursday evening in Goodland were Buck and Collette Parsons of McCook and Eldon and Opal Huntley of Oberlin. On Friday evening, the Rev. Bobby and Billie Cornelius of Oberlin and Roxy Roth of McCook attended the services there. The Gees returned home Monday.

Esther Ready of New York City visited from Saturday to Tuesday with her parents, John and Muriel Ready.

—Sunday Brunch Buffet, Nov. 14, 11 a.m.-2 p.m. LandMark Inn. 475-2340.

Sherri Shaw of San Francisco visited from Thursday to Monday with Gene and Laurene Van Otterloo.

Bob and Sharon Bearley of Kensington and Larry and Judy Bearley of Oakley, were weekend guests of their mother, Nora

K-State names scholars

Eighteen area students are among more than 4,000 at Kansas State University receiving scholarships this year.

The scholarships total $6.6 million, and most are made possible through donations and gifts to the KSU Foundation.

Area students include:

Dresden: Grant Reichert — $4,200 the Arts and Sciences Fund for Excellence; $5,000 the Dane G. Hansen Foundation Scholarship; $3,000 Col. Delbert L. Townsend Scholarship.

Jeffrey Wessel — $500 Engineering Scholarship; $2,000 Dane G. Hansen Foundation Scholarship; $200 Walter T. W. Poos Scholarship in agricultural engineering.

Jennings: Brett McKenna — $1,200 Achievement Scholarship. Katie Jo Randolph — $500 Kelce Foundation Scholarship; $2,000 Kansas State University Leadership Fund.

Oberlin: Matthew Coleman — $1,000 Engineering Scholarships; $3,000 Dane G. Hansen Foundation Scholarship; $500 William and Melissa Harold Memorial Scholarship; $4,500 Putnam Scholarship Trust.

Kelsey Dorshorst — $3,000 Dane G. Hansen Foundation Scholarship; $1,000 Opportunity Scholarship; $4,500 Putnam Scholarship Trust; $4,250 Col. Delbert L. Townsend Scholarship.

Rebekah Hasty — $1,405 KSU Foundation Scholarship.

Bearley, and attended the craft show at Herndon.

Chuck and Joy Votapka, and Dan, Lisa, Travis and Tara Votapka of Oberlin; Charlie, Gina, and Charles Votapka of Ogallala, Neb.; Nancy Ellis of Topeka; Brad Debey, Nicole Ellis and Don Semple of Manhattan; Eldon and Bev Sundgren of Leonardville, and Ann Sundgren of Wichita met at Gutierrez's in Hays on Sunday for dinner to help Chuck Votapka celebrate his birthday.

On Saturday evening, Jerald and Elaine Leitner visited at the home of John and Karla Sullivan in Colby to help Jerad celebrate his 14th birthday. Dustin Sullivan and Katrina Jones of Hays were additional guests.

Daniel Jordan was among junior high students attending the Northwest Kansas Music Educators Association honors program in Hays Saturday. He was one of nine vocal students, as well as 11 band students, who participated in the rehearsals and performance on the Fort Hays State University campus. He is the son of Judy Jordan, Oberlin.

Capt. Tanner Woolsey of Osan Air Force Base, Korea, came Sunday and will be visiting until Nov. 27 with his parents, Bob and Terri Woolsey.

Memorial services will be held at 11 a.m. today at Christ Episcopal Church in Salina for Robert D. Wilbur, 75, of Salina, who died Saturday. He is a former Oberlin resident and was an employee of Kennedy and Coe when he lived here.

Jesse Colson, Jessica Shaw and Megan Juenemann of Selden are among students featured in the third annual edition of Who's Who Among American High School Students — Sports Edition. Athletes are nominated by coaches, teachers and sports organizations, based on athletic achievement and participation in extra curricular activities.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Wolters visited Dorothy Wolters at the hospital in Atwood last Tuesday and Wednesday.

OBERLIN MODERN WOODMEN furnished several books to the Oberlin City Library as part of their "Make a Difference Day" program. Librarian Carol Smith (left) looked over the inspirational Christian books which she chose for the library. They were presented by Marie McKisson, secretary of the lodge.

—Staff photo by Cynthia Haynes

Modern Woodmen donate library books

The Oberlin camp of the Modern Woodmen of America donated several inspirational Christian books and a tape to the Oberlin City Library for "Make a Difference Day" on Saturday, Oct. 30.

The observance is a nationwide effort by members.

"On Make a Difference Day, hundreds of our members can look forward to feeling good by doing good and being a part of a nationally recognized event," said Marie McKisson, secretary of the camp.

Jaycees plan Angel Tree

The annual Oberlin Jaycees Angel Tree project is accepting recipient forms for any child (birth to 17 years of age) who is in need of a few extras for Christmas.

Items may include shirts, jeans, shoes, coats, gloves and miscellaneous items to make his/her Christmas a little brighter.

Those who wish to sign a child up to receive these items for Christmas may pick up a form at Fredrickson Insurance Agency or at various Oberlin business bulletin boards. They may be returned to the drop box at Fredrickson Insurance or to Abby Hissong, coordinator, at 202 S. Elk, in Oberlin.

The Angel Tree, with the ages of children who are in need, will be lo-located at the insurance agency at 183 S. Penn in Oberlin. Recipient forms are requested back by Wednesday, Nov. 24, with the final deadline being Friday, Dec. 3. Those shopping for Angel Tree children are asked to bring their wrapped items back by Friday, Dec. 17, with parents/guardians of Angel Tree recipients asked to pick up their child's gift on Monday, Dec. 20, or Tuesday, Dec. 21.

For details, contact Mrs. Hissong at 475-2696.

Quintet to perform in Atwood

Ensemble Amarcord, a men's a capella quintet, will perform at 3 p.m. at the Atwood High School, presented by Western Plains Arts Association.

All five members trained in the St. Thomas Boys Choir in Leipzig, Germany. The program will include a broad range of music, blending comedy and vocal skill.

Admission is $40 for adults, $5 for children or by season ticket.

Benefit set to move church

Decatur County Lutherans will join together to sponsor a benefit pancake and sausage supper for the restoration of St. Mark's Lutheran Church of Norcatour, which is being moved to the Decatur County Last Indian Raid Museum.

The benefit will be held from 5-7 p.m. on Friday, Nov. 19, at St. John's Lutheran Church Fellowship Hall, 510 North Wilson Ave., in Oberlin. This is a joint project of Faith Lutheran and St. John's Thri-vent members, with the help of museum board members, to raise money for restoration of St. Mark's.

A donation will be taken for the supper.

The Smoky Hill Chapter of Thri-vent Financial for Lutherans will match up to $1,500 toward this "Care Abounds in Communities" project.

The museum board will recognize those who give donations of $100 or more by including the donor's name on a plaque in the restored church.

Everyone is invited to have supper with friends, support the museum benefit, and then attend the Decatur Community High School Musical, "Godspell," at 7:30 p.m. at the high school auditorium.

For details, contact Pastor Charlotte Strecker-Baseler at (785) 475-3055 at Faith Lutheran Church.

Coffee Cafe

Has invited all the public to a party at the Gateway, Room 3, on the 18th of November from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. There will be chocolate, tea and different kinds of coffee.

Everyone needs something special once in a while.

Bring family and friends and just take a seat and sip and chat. If you would like more information just call 785-475-3762 or 785-475-3769.

Dinner Theatre

'GODSPELL'

DCHS Dinner & Show
Saturday
November 20
6 p.m.

Reservations must be made by November 15

$10 Dinner & Show
Call 475-2231

— NOTICE — The Decatur County Courthouse and the Decatur County Landfill will be closed Thursday, Nov. 11 to honor Veterans' Day

Howard Kool Honda
3 x 11
oh/adv
Ad sent to GDN

Private finishes basic training

Army Private 2nd Class David Roberts has graduated from 14 weeks of basic and advanced training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

Pvt. Robert was platoon leader for the 3rd Platoon, Foxtrot Company, 35th Engineer Battalion. After completing his hometown recruiting obligations in Lawrence, he will report to Fort Riley for more training. He is assigned to the 1st Armor Division replacement detachment and can be deployed to Iraq any time.

Pvt. Roberts is the son of Doug and Deb (Stillions) Geist, Lawrence, and Jeff Roberts, Smith Center. His mother is a 1979 graduate of Decatur Community High School.

Pvt. Roberts

