Selden grad named to college post

The Board of Regents at Cameron University in Lawton, Okla., has approved the appointment of Dr. Larry Kruse as vice president for student services.

Larry Kruse

He graduated from Selden High School and is the son of Mildred Cochran, a resident of Cedar Living Center, and the late Veere Cochran. He is a cousin of Dr. Gary Fredrickson and a nephew of Fern Jording of Oberlin.

rollment management. In his new job, Dr. Kruse will be directly responsible to the president of the university for the general welfare of all students enrolled at the university. He will also oversee the operation, development and implementation of policies and procedures related to student services departments, as well as maintain the enrollment management duties.

While he has an extensive background in all aspects of higher education administration, his primary area of expertise is student recruitment and enrollment management.

He served for 12 years as director of high school and college relations at Oklahoma State University and 17 years as dean of student services at Seward County Community College in Liberal. While at Oklahoma State, he helped produce an increase of more than 50 percent in freshman enrollment and a 29-percent growth in the overall student body.

He holds a doctorate in education from Oklahoma State and earned his bachelor's and master's degrees from Fort Hays State University. He has written several papers and made presentations on best practices in enrollment management and student recruitment.

Oberlin student wins academic honor
