Wrestlers make top grades

Two Oberlin boys have been named to the Kansas Wrestling Coaches' Association All-Academic Wrestling Team.

Decatur Community High senior Gannon Reichert, who wrestled for the Red Devils at 171 pounds in the state tournament, was named to the first team for Class 3-2-1A schools.

Senior David Barth, who wrestled at 125 pounds at state, received honorable mention.

To make the team, wrestlers have to be seniors, wrestle on the varsity squad with a winning season record and have a grade point average of 3.5 to 4 points for first team and 3-3.49 for honorable mention.

Barth finished his season 17-15 and Reichert was 29-13.

Basketball tournament set

The second annual Sappa Valley Shootout youth 3-on-3 basketball tournament will be held Saturday, April 16, in Oberlin.

Boys and girls in grades 3-10 are eligible to participate.

The tournament, at the Decatur Community Junior High and high school gyms, is sponsored by the Oberlin Cyclones Mid-America Youth Basketball boys team.

Last year, the tournament drew 72 teams from 26 towns in Kansas and Nebraska.

Entry forms are available at area schools and on the group's web site www.sappavalleyshootout.com. The entry fee is $30, with forms and fee due by Wednesday, April 6.

For information, call Sue Glodt at 475-8926 or Barbara Olson at 475-3602 or 475-7015.

Members of the Cyclones are Andy Anderson, Jason Thomas, Jesse Juenemann, Andy Inman, Brent Stallman, Kurt Olson, Kyle Glodt and Nolan May.

Hunter education class offered

An all-day hunter education training workshop will be offered on Saturday, April 2, at the Hays Recreation Center by the Kansas Department of Wildlife and Parks.

This is the only training for hunter education teachers that will be offered this year in this part of the state. Presenters from Skillpath Seminars will help instructors improve their presentation when doing hunter education classes in their home towns. Certified hunter education instructors are encouraged to attend.

There is no charge and lunch will be provided. Laser Shot and Hunter Education Tools software will be on hand for demonstrations. Door prizes will be given.

Certified hunter education instructors who attend will have their certification extended four years from the current date. To register or for details, call Stacy at (620) 672-5911.
