Swimmers make waves at state meet

The McCook/Oberlin swim team yard freestyle. finished eighth at the Y State Meet in Lincoln, Neb., on March 5.

The team came in ahead of both Kearney and Hastings in the meet, 400 swimmers.

"We saw some outstanding swimmers, especially from the eastern part of the state," Coach Terry Flaska said. "Our kids swam very well and were not intimidated by the larger teams that were present.

"This season has been fantastic. The kids have worked hard these past six months, and it all comes down to this final state meet. I have been very proud of this group all season long." Leading the team was Oberlin's

Heather Glodt, who won the girls 13-14 50-yard freestyle, 100-yard butterfly and 100-yard breaststroke. She was also part of the winning 200-yard medley relay team. Kiah Blau placed second in the
