

Scholarship winners selected

The Pete Henry Foundation has awarded 51 scholarships to area graduates this spring.

For the first time, the foundation is giving renewable scholarships for $500 for each semester for either four or eight semesters. Among the winners is Anikka Martin, Herndon.

Named for $750 scholarships were Kristin Wark and Nichole Spresser, Golden Plains, and Gannon Reichert, Justine Miller and David Morris, Decatur Community High School.

Named as $500 recipients were Jeremy Wahrman and Michelle Hartner, Herndon, and David Barth, Oberlin.

The scholarship was created by

Area aging group plans volunteer training class

The Northwest Kansas Area Agency on Aging and the Kansas Department on Aging will sponsor training for anyone who would like to become a volunteer health insurance counselor.

The three-day class will begin at 8:45 a.m. on Wednesday, July 6, at the Hadley Center in Hays. It will cover aspects of health insurance that affect Medicare beneficiaries,

Mr. Henry, a farmer in the Brewster area. In the 1930s, he was hired by Douglas Aircraft Company to work in the engineering department designing and constructing fighter planes. During the 1940s he was flight engineer of the B-17, B-24 and B-29 aircraft. He also participated in top secret training, with some of the airmen from his base being the ones who dropped the atomic bomb.

His dream was to help students get a college education, as he finished only the eighth grade. Students from Cheyenne, Decatur, Gove, Logan, Rawlins, Sheridan, Sherman, Thomas and Wallace counties are eligible.

such as Medicare claims and enrollment, Medicare Supplement Insurance and Long Term Care insurance and the new Medicare Prescription Drug program.

The staff of Senior Health Insurance Counseling for Kansas will conduct the training. For details, call Glenna Clingsmith at (800) 432-7422 or (785) 628-8205.

Christian Women to meet

"An Apple a Day" will be the theme for a meeting sponsored by McCook Christian Women's Club from 10 to 11:30 a.m. on Friday, June 17.

It will begin with a continental breakfast at 10 a.m. at Best Western Poolside, 612 West B, in McCook. Kathy Latta will sing and LaRita VanBoskirk of Gering, Neb., will share her story as a five-year breast cancer survivor.

Make reservations by June 15 by calling Dollie at (308) 345-4011 or Lavonne, (308) 345-1749. Reservations must be honored, canceled or used by a friend. Cost is $5.

Oil painting workshop set

The Colby High Plains Art Club and Colby Community College will offer an oil painting workshop from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Thursday and Friday, June 16 and 17, in the paint room at the college in Colby.

Instructor will be Rita Roberts of Monte Vista, Colo., who will feature her techniques in creating oil paintings using a single palette knife and no brushes or solvents.

A native of McCook, Ms. Roberts received a Bachelor of Fine Arts Degree from the Kansas City Art Institute in 1987 after attending the Minneapolis College of Art and Design.

She is also a signature member of the Oil Painters of America and was winner in the Artist's Magazine Annual Contest for 2004.

Deadline for registration is June 9. Workshop instructions and a list of required supplies will be sent to each accepted applicant.

For details, call Marj Brown at (785) 462-3515 or e-mail mjbrown@st-tel.net.

Relationship class planned

"Dysfunctional Relationships" will be presented from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. today at The Gateway in Oberlin.

The program is approved for five hours of continuing education credit for nurses, social workers and emergency medical technicians.

For details, call the Northwest Kansas Area Health Education Center, 217 E. 32nd, Hays, Kan., 67601, (785) 628-6128.

Stearman Fly-In set

The 23rd annual Stearman Fly-In will be held at the Cheyenne County Airport at St. Francis all day Saturday and Sunday morning.

It will include breakfast and lunch on the field, tandem skydives and sunrise balloons. For details, call (785) 332-2251, or www.Stearman-FlyIn.org.
