Kathy Van Meter met her sister and husband, Gladys and Sam Williams of Cimarron, and Tim Nejd of Quinter on July 1, then they drove to Sylvan Grove and picked up Charlette Wilson. From there they went to Tescott and had lunch with a nephew, Mike Heath, at the bar and grill he owns. Mrs. Williams' daughter, Connie and Kenny Faulkner of Shawnee joined them.

They went on to Kansas City where they were houseguests of Grace and Jim Hartman. On Saturday they all attended a reception supper at Oak Grove, Mo. Sunday was the wedding of Malonda Hilburn and Cal Hutson in Blue Springs, Mo. Molanda is the daughter of Clarence and Dana Hilburn. They returned home on July 4.

July 4 guests of Toots Magers were Joani, Madison and Cody Killen, Tampa, Fla., and Judy Easton. That evening they went to the home of Rea and Dee Magers for a barbecue, then they all went to Norton to see the fireworks display at the lake.

On Thursday, Toots Magers went to Quinter for Cody's seventh birthday. They all went to Castle Rock, then went out for pizza. For the finale of the birthday party they all went to the Judy Easton home for cake and homemade ice cream.

On Friday, Toots Magers accompanied Richard and Jane Engelhardt to Omaha for a housewarming party at the home of Kevin Engelhardt and friend, Catherine. Also joining the party was Mike and Pam Hornunk, Brittany and Tyler, of Aurora, Colo.

The Lyle ladies got together and sewed on Friday.
