Rexford News

By Sondra Barnett

We are so pleased that out of the 10 girls entered in the royalty contest at the Thomas County Rodeo in Colby, four of them are from the Golden Plains school district.

En route to take Tabitha and Tiffany Barnett to their homes last Saturday, Sondra Barnett, Alice Gonzales (a friend from Ohio), and the girls went to Holcomb for supper at the home of Tiffany's family, Scott and Linda Barnett, Michael, Lacey and Megan. Others present were Todd and Mandy Barnett, Kerry, Taylor, and Melia Barnett, and Sondra's great-grandson, Alex Barnett, all of Garden City.

After supper Saturday, Tabitha, Alice and Sondra Barnett traveled to Liberal and spent several nights with Tabitha's family, Cory and Tessa Barnett, Corban and Obadiah. On Sunday, they attended church at Christian Heritage, where Bill Barnett was pastor until his death. They visited Bryan and Lori Barnett, Elijah and Joshua, Tyrone, Okla., and friends. On Tuesday, they visited Sondra's daughter, Shalom and Kevin Kruse, Gabriel and Kaleb, Pretty Prairie. They returned to Rexford on Wednesday.

Dick Sanford is a patient in Citizens Medical Center in Colby, recuperating from surgery which he underwent in Wichita about three weeks ago. Eunice was with Dick during the stay in Wichita. It's good to have them back and wonderful that Dick is doing so well.

Collette Moeder of Houston, who has been with her grandmother, Clea Moeder, for several weeks, spent last weekend with the Tim Moeder family in Colby while Clea and Buck Harper went to Trenton. Yvonne Wingard of Colby visited Clea Moeder and brought her some delicious cinnamon rolls.

Sondra Barnett brought a trunkload of new potatoes back from Garden City. Anyone who would like to have some is welcome to them as long as they last. Come by and help yourself.

Koffee Klatch attendees were Doris Jean Oliver, Taryn Rogers, Margaret AraSmith, Grace Cheney, Liz Rall, Deb Stepper, Eunice Sanford, Alice Gonzales, Sondra Barnett, Evelyn Proffitt, Berneda Zoberst, Delores Dible, Deborah Gamoba, Hulda Wark, Jean Hawkins, and Vesta Roth.

Barnswallows last week were Lawrence Horinek, Fran Leach, Mary Ann and Lawrence Juenemann, Betty and Rex Carswell, Darlene Robben, Grace Cheney, and Deb Stepper. The Carswells brought the birthday cake for the July birthdays.

Merritt Reservoir, near Valentine, Neb., was the location for youth camp for the high school young people from the Rexford Church, July 22-24. Those attending were Samantha Dice, Yvonn Vargas, Jennie Statz, Danny Rogers, Brett Spresser, Cody Robinson, and Ryan Altman. They were taken to camp by Darrel Dible and Daniel and Annette Spresser.

Sandra Olsson, Amarillo, Texas, visited her dad, Darrell Leh, for several days. During that time, Darrell had a heart attack and was hospitalized for a couple of days.

On July 29, Sondra Barnett went to Pretty Prairie to meet her newest granddaughter. Trinity Faith had been born early that morning to Shalom and Kevin Kruse, weighing 7 pounds and 11 ounces. She has two older brothers, Gabriel and Kaleb, to welcome her.
