Oberlin Speedway holds races during Decatur County Fair

By MIKE HUGHES

Oberlin Speedway held races Sunday evening, Aug. 14, during the Decatur County Fair with seven divisions.

David Murray Jr. of Oberlin won a IMCA Modified marathon feature that saw track officials cut the race from 20 to 15 laps due to time.

After two attempts to start the race with a caution, officials lined the cars up single-file on the third try. However the yellow flew on that attempt before Tyson Garrison finally took the point on the fourth try.

One lap was completed, then the caution waved twice before the next restart. Murray took the lead on lap 3 and never looked back, even though several more cautions kept the field bunched. Ronnie Wallace inched out Garrison for second at the checkers, with Brice Riley and Jay Steffens rounding out the top five.

Heat race winners were Don Hagan Jr., Murray and Doug Holzmeister. Josh Hudson of Athol won the IMCA Stock Car feature but was challenged by Tyler Hahn most of the race.

Hudson and Hahn both got past first-lap leader Caleb Peters on the second lap and the chase was on.

Hahn tried several times to get under Hudson in the corners, but just could not make the pass. Hahn faded to fourth on the last couple of laps as Cory Struckhoff and Bryan Lariviere drove by to finish second and third.

Jason Schoenberger was fifth. Hudson and Bob Chalupa won the two heat races.

Todd Pankonin of Benkleman, Neb., took the lead on lap 2 from Brian Conness and drove away to win the caution-free 15-lap IMCA Hobby Stock feature. Gene Sneath held off Brady Schoen for the runner-up spot, followed by heat 1 winner Conness and Kelly Karnopp. Dustin McClurg won the other heat race.

Kensington's Donald Dodds won a drag race with Kyle Rohleder down the front straight on the final lap to win the Bomber feature. Heat 2 winner Brent Moss claimed third, trailed by Angel Munoz and Jimmy Jenkins. Dodds won the first heat race.

Wes and Chuck Eagleburger of Norton won the Cruiser feature, beating heat race winners Joe and Jim Carter to the checkers. Cash dash winners Jeff Doty and Chad Fields finished third.

John Werner of Palisade, Neb., took the lead at the halfway mark of the 10-lap Classic Modified feature for his second win of the season.

A.C. Werner and Larry Pollmann finished second and third. Heat race winners included John Werner and Max Pollmann.

The Mini Trucks made third appearance of the season and Leilan Bieker of McCook drove around heat race winner Sarah Murray on lap 6 of the 10-lap main event to make his way to the winner's circle.

Murray finished second, followed by Andrew Richards.

The Fredrickson Insurance Agency of Oberlin was the evening's race sponsor.

The regular six classes will return to action at Oberlin Speedway at 7 p.m. Saturday to conclude the season.

No rules for Sprint Car Shootout

To ensure that he will be able to include local races in next weekend's Sprint Car Shootout, promoter Rick Salem has come up with a new set of rules.

Rule No. 1 — There are no rules. "If it will bolt on and make it go faster, I like it," Salem said. "This is the time to try all the things that are normally illegal. Just and long as it's safe, you can race it."

With about 40 360cc spring cars expected, plus the classic modifieds and the outlaw stock cars all racing on the same night, Salem says he expects this to be one night race fans won't want to miss.

The gates open at 5 p.m. and racing starts at 7 p.m. on Saturday, Sept. 3.
