Salon of Design relocates

Diederich's Salon of Design has moved to 102 W. Commercial from its former location with Shear Creations West on South Rodeheaver. Owner Teresa Diederich has been a beautician in Oberlin since 1981. She graduated from McCook Beauty Academy and her salon was located for many years in her home. She attended continuing education classes and has learned a lot of new techniques from her daughter, Kamy Diederich, who works at Trios Spa and Salon in Fort Collins, Colo.

Mrs. Diederich carries Biologie, American Crew (men's line), Redken and Aquage products and also does spa facials, pedicures and manicures. She said she wants to congratulate Mary Long of Shear Creations on her new business venture and thank Jane Carlisle and Lairy Goltl for their many years of serving customers in the area. Appointments are appreciated, but not necessary. Call 475-4332 cell or 475-3525.

Chile refugee to speak Sunday

Sergio Urrutia, who spent two years in Oberlin with his parents, Pedro and Rosa Urrutia, and family in the 1970s, will speak at the 9:30 a.m. worship service on Sunday at Faith Lutheran Church. Faith Lutheran sponsored the family from Chile when they were seeking political asylum through Lutheran Immigration and Refugee Service. The children attended Oberlin schools. Sergio was 7 when they came here. After two years, they moved to Dumas, Texas, where other families from Chile were relocating. Mr. Urrutia contacted Pastor Charlotte Strecker-Baseler last month and said that he would like to bring his wife and three daughters to Oberlin to meet the people of the church who helped them and express his thanks. His wife, Belinda, will provide music. They will be accompanied to Oberlin by two children, Isabel, 5, and Eliana, 4. Mr. Urrutia works in Amarillo, Texas, and the couple is involved in a prison ministry. Sunday is Rally Day at the church and the public is welcome to attend. A potluck dinner will follow the service at noon.

Group plans Fall Fun Night

Supporting Our Schools, the parent-teacher group at Oberlin Elementary School, will hold its annual Fall Fun Night beginning at 7 p.m. Tuesday. The event will include a scavenger hunt starting at 7 p.m. in the gym. All ages are welcome to attend, but children must be accompanied by an adult. There is no charge. There will be a jar available for donations for a school district affected by Hurricane Katrina, which Oberlin Elementary has adopted. For details, call Abby Hissong at 475-2696.

Woman shares program

Sue Glodt, who spent six weeks in South Korea as a Rotary Group Exchange team member, presented a program on the nation at the Sept. 7 meeting of Oberlin United Methodist Women at the church.

As an educator, she was especially interested in schools there and found a greater use of advanced technology in the year 2000, compared to this nation at that time. She gave a slide presentation, showing various customs and traditions, and also displayed articles from there and answered questions. It was also noted that the Korean United Methodist Church in the United States has the most rapid growth among Methodists world-wide even though the population of South Korea is 80 percent Buddhist.

Devotions on the theme of prayer in times of national crisis were given by Eris Young after which Linda Hollowell sang a solo. Plans were made to attend the Hays District United Methodist Women meeting on Sept. 24 in Oakley, at which time school supplies being collected for Methodist Youthville will be delivered. It was voted to give $100 toward the purchase of a new water tower at Camp Lakeside, near Scott City. Hostesses were Laurene Van Otterloo and Mary Ann Amack.

The program for the Oct. 5 meeting will be "Praying Women of the Bible" to be given by Doris Sloan. Devotions will be given by Helen Derby and hostesses will be Elaine Bryan and Kay Moon.

Neighbors plan benefit

Plans were made for a matching funds tailgate potato bar and dessert benefit for a new swimming pool in Oberlin when members of the Oberlin Royal Neighbors met on Sept. 9 at the Golden Age Center.

Oracle Nadean Stoney presided at the meeting and led in the flag salute. Chancellor Millie Lippelmann gave the opening prayer. Anna Shaw, a member of the swimming pool committee, was a guest.

The Royal Neighbors of America Society will match the first $1,000 received. The benefit will begin at 5 p.m. at the Oberlin City Park before the Oberlin-Goodland home football game on Sept. 23. In case of rain, it will be held in the high school cafeteria.

Plans were made by members to attend the convention at Norcat. Mrs. Lippelmann gave the closing prayer. The next meeting will be at 4 p.m. on Oct. 7 at the Golden Age Center.

P.E.O. holds box supper

Fifteen members of Chapter BH P.E.O. met at the park for an old-fashioned box supper at 6:30 p.m. on Sept. 8. Susan Nelson was hostess and Dori Pauls, co-hostess. Each member made a selection from the 15 boxes, baskets and sacks, then all enjoyed their various meals. New yearbooks were distributed and reviewed, after which the co-hostess provided ingredients for make-your-own ice cream sundaes. The next meeting will be Oct. 13 with Marsha Richards as hostess, assisted by Barbara Brown.

Members enjoy breakfast

Zeta Nu Club met at the home of Lois Fredrickson for a breakfast meeting on Sept. 8. President Eloise Smith conducted the meeting and Kay Marcuson won the hostess gift. The next meeting will be a tour at 2 p.m. on Oct. 13 at the Last Indian Raid Museum.

Jennings family holds reunion at McCook home

The Jennings family reunion was held Sept. 4 at the home of Emery and Delores Kathka in McCook. There were 25 present for the potluck dinner. The afternoon was spent learning about ancestors and taking pictures.

Brett Jennings, Oberlin; Glen and Pauline Eaton, Salina; John and Agnes Urban, Wilma Kathka, Colby; Duane Kathka and Debra Farr, North Platte, Neb.; Howard and Betty Jennings, Imperial, Neb.; Lawrence and Lila Jennings, Jennings; Roger and Dolores Tupper, Naponee, Neb.; Kerry Tupper, Chicago; Donna Stratman, Pueblo, Colo.; Bonnie Core, Tulsa, Okla.; Jane Jareske, Cozad, Neb.; and Emery and Delores Kathka, McCook.

A gift for the oldest person present went to Vena Walters with gift for the youngest going to Brett Jennings. Kerry Tupper came the farthest; Glen and Pauline Eaton had been married the longest, and Lawrence and Lila Jennings, married the fewest years. Those present were Vena Walters, Nadean Stoney, James and Delores Jennings, Hope Kathka and

The next reunion will be held Sept. 3 at the Senior Center in Jennings with Lawrence and Lila Jennings as hosts.
