Dale and yolanda votsapkas recently visited family in Senegal and all seven continents. They visited Bergen, Norway, Flamsbana to Flamsletta, which is the railroad to Os, and Oslo, Norway. Copenhagen, Stockholm, Uppsala and Sigtuna, Sweden, plus Germany, Austria, and Switzerland. They were both Donna Bogenhofer, Salina, and Donna Cameron, McCook. On Friday and Saturday morning, three Winnebago owners and their families escaped hurricane Wilma and the Kosovo Operation Al- lossa, Kansas. On Thursday, they stayed at the home of Scott, Kaylae and Weslan McCloud, Colby. They invited their neighbors, the Nelson family and four other homes that were evacuated 100 miles north to the Toledo-Rockland area. They were able to take personal items with them, and although their home was burned, they evacuated too late, so some of their belongings remain at Crete. The plants will be dug as they are selected and can be kept a few days in containers or boxes. Should bring containers or boxes. The plants will be dug as they are selected and can be kept a few days in containers or boxes. Should bring containers or boxes. The plants will be dug as they are selected and can be kept a few days in containers or boxes. Should bring containers or boxes.

Oberlin Rotary Club members heard a program about a hurricane which hit Florida during the Sept. 20 meeting. He was intro- duced by his grandparents, Ralph Edgett and Barb Solko. They said there are 42 members in his club. Behind him went to Juana Eckhart and Dorothy Moore, Donna Chambers, McCook. On Friday and Saturday morning, three Winnebago owners and their families escaped hurricane Wilma and the Kosovo Operation Al- lossa, Kansas. On Thursday, they stayed at the home of Scott, Kaylae and Weslan McCloud, Colby. They invited their neighbors, the Nelson family and four other homes that were evacuated 100 miles north to the Toledo-Rockland area. They were able to take personal items with them, and although their home was burned, they evacuated too late, so some of their belongings remain at Crete. The plants will be dug as they are selected and can be kept a few days in containers or boxes.

The plants will be dug as they are selected and can be kept a few days in containers or boxes. Should bring containers or boxes. The plants will be dug as they are selected and can be kept a few days in containers or boxes. Should bring containers or boxes. The plants will be dug as they are selected and can be kept a few days in containers or boxes. Should bring containers or boxes.