Junior high beats Sainty

The Decatur Community Junior High boys opened their basketball season on Thursday with a double win over St. Francis.

The seventh-grade Red Devils beat the young Indians 40-17.

"We did some things very well for our first game," Coach Tim Breth said. "I was pleased with the intensity and defensive aggressiveness. If we continue to work hard, this group will have a lot of potential."

Oberlin finished the first quarter ahead of the visitors 11-5 and never let St. Francis get the lead.

In the second quarter, Oberlin shut out Sainty 14-0 to lead 25-5 at the half. In the third quarter, Oberlin outscored Sainty 11-7.

The only quarter that St. Francis outscored Oberlin was the fourth, where the young Indians were able to score 5 to Oberlin's 4.

Top players for Oberlin were Chad Williams, 12 points, six rebounds; Josh Ritter, 11 points, eight rebounds and five steals; Dakota Soderland, 6 points, eight rebounds; Dalton Dolan, 6 points; Nolan Peters, 3 points, two steals; and Jeb Fortin, 2 points, three steals.

The Oberlin eighth graders didn't win by such a big margin, but they downed St. Francis 27-13.

"What a great way to start the season," Coach Breth said. "We played extremely hard. I'm proud of the boys, especially on defense. We will need to improve our shooting percentage to be competitive."

Oberlin outscored St. Francis in every quarter, starting out 4-2 in the first and 7-6 in the second to lead 11-8 at the half. In the third quarter, Oberlin again doubled Sainty's score, 10-5. In the fourth, Oberlin shut out the Indians 6-0.

Top players were Toby Peters, 14 points, 13 rebounds; Chris Schiessler, 5 points, seven rebounds; Kaden Macfee, 4 points, four steals; Wiley Farr, 2 points, four rebounds and six steals; and Steven Overmiller, 2 points, three steals.

The Oberlin boys were to be in Oakley on Tuesday and will be home again on Thursday as the seventh graders take on the Quinter Bulldogs at 4:30 p.m. in Oberlin, with the eighth-grade game right after.

On Friday, the boys will play in a "B" team tournament in Colby starting at 4 p.m., and on Monday, Nov. 14, they will be in McCook.
