Eddie Meitl and Delores Depperschmidt for helping get us to the hospital during the blizzard. Thanks to everyone who sent cards, flowers, calls and visits. Also to Harold, Lad and Murray for their special help. God bless you all. Lillian and Don Sulzman

On behalf of all Decatur County citizens, I wish to express heartfelt thanks to all city and county employees and volunteers, the electric companies and citizens who pulled together helping each other in our time of need. You make me proud to be a Decatur Countian. Doyle Brown, Chairman Decatur County Commissioners* their thoughts and prayers, cards, flowers and the memorials sent during the loss of my father. A special thanks goes out to the employees and Board of Trustees of Decatur Health Systems and Custom Trophy for allowing us to be gone and not worrying. We could not pick a better group of people to work with. We are truly blessed to live in such a thoughtful and caring community. Rick and Lynn Doeden Erin and Rodger Wolfram Kellen Doeden

Card of Thanks

The Sappa Valley Youth Ranch staff and youth would like to thank the following people for their help during the necessary evacuation due to the power outage caused by the blizzard: Bill and Carol Duncan, Colonel Gary Allen, Rev. Doug Hasty, and the Frontier Motel for donating mattresses, The Gateway staff for their wonderful food and for staying there with us, and the City of Oberlin and County employees for their help in evacuating us.

Friends, thank you for the visits, cards and flowers when I was in the hospital. Bless you. Eileene Grose

Thanks to everyone for cards, letters and phone calls after my surgery in Denver. L' Marie Robertson

We want to give a huge thanks to the Jennings EMT's, Greg Ritter, Decatur county road graders, Tony Amlong,
