POLICE BLOTTER

The Oberlin Police Department worked these calls this week:
• Around 11:51 a.m. Saturday a 17-year-old boy walked away from Sappa Valley Youth Ranch. Patrolman Troy Haas and ranch staff found the young man just northeast of the city limits. He was returned to the ranch.
Around 1:54 p.m. on Sunday, two boys, the same youth and another 17-year-old, walked away from the ranch. Patrolman Haas saw the pair running across the old lake bottom to the north of the ranch.

Police Chief Wade Lockhart said Patrolman Haas was able to direct officers to the exact location of the young men. The two were taken into custody and returned to the ranch.

• Around 10:45 a.m. Friday, Catherine Bouts, 52, Jennings, hit an ambulance from Sheridan County while trying to park a Decatur County ambulance. Chief Lockhart said the Sheridan County ambulance was parked on the east side of the Decatur County Hospital. Ms. Bouts went to park, cut it too short and hit the vehicle from Selden. There was no ticket given since the accident was on private property, he said.

• Between 6 p.m. on Saturday and 1 p.m. on Sunday, someone ran into a 1991 Chevy truck parked behind Hansen's Plumbing. There was damage to the driver's-side front fender and door. The case is under investigation.

Corrections

A story in the Jan. 4 issue of The Oberlin Herald about the Natural Food Club named Sandy Fair as the coordinator. Melanie Andersson is the present coordinator, and Mrs. Fair and Montine Alstrom are board members. The error was due to incomplete information given to the newspaper.

A story in the Dec. 28 edition about the undefeated 1955 football team said incorrectly that it "had not happened before and hasn't happened since." Rusty Addleman, a member of the 1955 team, tells us that the 1930 team also was undefeated and there were ones before that. Mr. Addleman said that it seemed like in the story that the Red Devils hadn't beaten the Norton Blue Jays in years, but actually the Oberlin team beat the Norton team three out of four years he was in high school. Mr. Addleman said the comment at the end of the story about Derry Bishop was actually about Jerry Baker. These were reporter's errors.

A story in the Jan. 4 edition of said the chamber banquet will be on Wednesday, Jan. 18. It actually will be Thursday, Jan. 19. This was a reporter's error.

A story in Jan. 4 issue about Denton Bailey said Bailey will take an appointment to the U.S. Military Academy at West Point. What Bailey has received is a congressional nomination to West Point, which puts him in competition for an appointment. This was a reporter's error.

The Oberlin Herald will correct or clarify any mistake or misunderstanding in a news story. Please call our office at 475-2206 to report errors. We believe that news stories should be fair and factual, and appreciate your calling to our attention any failure to live up to this standard.

WEATHER

Decatur County Weather — January 10th — 14th

Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
55/25	60/23	48/18	53/20	58/25

Normal High: 42
Normal Low: 15

Sunrise: 8:02 to 8:03 A.M.
Sunset: 5:37 to 5:41 P.M.

Frontal systems keep moving through every three to four days, but all we can squeeze out of the sky is a few sprinkles and flurries. High pressure anchored over the Rockies will continue to keep temperatures above normal and chances for precipitation close to zero through the middle of the month. January is typically a dry and cold month, but hopefully with the warmer temperatures a good wet 6" snow will turn up before we get to February.
