

Congratulations to the winners of the Cardinal Bar and Grill pool tournament. Taking first place was Jerald Leitner, Oberlin; second place, Chuck Forbes, Norcatu; and third, Scooter Matchett, Norcatu. The next tournaments will be April 10 and April 24.

Bob and Bonnie Rapp of Manhattan met Dick Higgins, formerly of Norcatu, on March 11 at the Town Center Mall. He was en route from his home in Overland Park to a wedding in Smith Center.

Birthdays: Quentin Wentz - March 24; Lee Arnold - March 26; Teresa Reves Wood, Rex Knapp - March 27.

On March 18, 208 people registered at the benefit hog roast sponsored by the Royal Neighbors at the Norcatu City Building for the Jim and Teresa Arnold family. Don McMullen auctioned off the remaining meat and food.

The Senior Citizens met March 10 at the Educational Building with 17 present. Winners at cards were Al Sedlmayer, Juanita Eckhart and Joyce Price. The next meeting will be Friday with a potluck dinner at noon followed by cards.

John Flynn, who is doing a documentary on Cornerstone Theater, was to be in Norcatu on March 20, but has rescheduled due to the weather to the latter part of April.

Congratulations to Lance Roe, son of Jeff and Lori Roe, who wrestled at 160 pounds for Norton Community High School at the annual Kansas Wrestling Senior Classic held on March 19 in Abilene. Lance took first.

Doyle and Pat Magers, Willard, Ohio, came March 18 to visit family in the area. Those gathering at the home of Rea and Dee Magers that afternoon were Doyle and Pat Magers, Toots Magers and Kathy Van Meter of Lyle, Charlie and Judy Easton of Quinter, and Jeff and Joy Magers of Cedar Bluffs. They attended the benefit hog roast for Jim Arnold in Norcatu. On Sunday several of the group, which included Richard and Janie Engelhardt of Norton, gathered at the home of Toots Magers and enjoyed a meal and more reminiscing.

The historic archway entrance to the Norcatu Cemetery was destroyed earlier this month. Plans are to try to repair it, but some pieces are missing. Help is needed in finding them. Walkers are asked to keep their eyes open for any letters or numbers that might have been thrown from the top of the vehicle that hit the entrance. Please turn any pieces you find into the Norcatu City Office.

Wava Reames' grandchildren, Shawnda and James, were with her from March 11 through March 16, enjoying spring break. Everyone really enjoyed the Sternberg Museum at Hays. Wava was visiting with another lady there, whose grandchildren were on spring break from Kansas City. It turned out her husband is Dr. Dallas Richards, son of Johnny and Christine Richards, formerly of Norcatu.

Afternoon visitors of Marguerite Clark, Wava Reames, and Dorothy Ward on March 18, were Loyal Temple, Langley, Okla., and Linda (Roe) Henry, Atwood.

Larry Sumner cleared the snow at the Kenneth Prices place and good neighbor John K. Gallentine cleared the yard and scooped the sidewalks.

The Norcatu News ran a day late last week. We had a "slight" snow of over a foot on Monday and Tuesday. Great for the crops, though.

Leslie Ward brought Frank Ward from Hays Medical Center to the Decatur County Hospital last week. Velda Ward has been doing well in Cedar Living Center.

Dorothy Ward was a guest of Pansy Price at a quilt and art showing at the Dane Hansen Museum at Logan on Tuesday evening, March 14. Most of the quilts were artwork related to the 9/11 tragedy, and were skillfully done.

Bee Nelson and Marguerite Clark accompanied Dorothy Ward to McCook on Friday, March 17, for lunch and a doctor's appointment.

Cedar Living News

Clarence Sattler is a new resident at Cedar Living Center.

Residents enjoyed spending time looking out at the snow this week. We experienced some schedule changes due to the weather and missed some of our favorite visitors for a few days.

There were several winners at penny cards on Monday afternoon. Those joining in on the game included Nettie Britton, Alice Fiala, Elsie Goodnight, Betty Harden, Paul Sass, Lowell Sebaugh, Don Shaw, Don Sulzman, Charley Vavroch, Velda Ward, Mathilda Bollig, Kenneth Sattler, and Hank and Bea Wolfram.

A sing-along time was held before lunch on Tuesday.

Bingo volunteers Jerry Temple, Opal Huntley, and Alice Shirley came to assist with our Tuesday afternoon game. Suzanne Huntley of Arkansas City also assisted.

Hank Wolfram and Kenneth Sattler tied for the first bingo and Zola Brown won the blackout game. Following the game, Dennis Brown served strawberry shortcake in honor of the arrival of spring.

Juanita Williby served as hostess for pinochle players Elsie Goodnight, Zola Brown, Donald Shaw, and Nettie Britton on Wednesday afternoon.

Lisa Votapka, dietary supervisor, was a guest speaker at the Residents Council meeting on Wednesday afternoon. She spoke about plans to begin serving a buffet style breakfast starting in May. The Council also made plans for the annual Easter egg hunt to be held on April 11.

Father George of the Sacred Heart Catholic Church said Mass on the patio on Thursday morning.

Barbara Solko played Scrabble with Wynemah Cox on Thursday afternoon.

A large group of residents met on Thursday afternoon for a game of dice. The nursing staff served milkshakes during the game.

Stuart Euhus gave the Bible study lesson on Thursday afternoon.

The baking group made mince-meat cookies on Friday afternoon.

The Oberlin Covenant Church was in charge of the worship service on Sunday afternoon.
