Corrections

The Yesteryear column in the June 14 issue of The Oberlin Herald said, in the 50-year-ago items, that Philip E. Law and Marjorie May Jording were married on June 20. It should have said June 10. This was a typographical error in transcribing the item.

The Oberlin K-18 Boys Baseball team record was reported as 0-3 in the same issue. The correct record is 1-2. The reporter was not aware that the scores of second games in doubleheaders do not count for season standings.

Let it rain let it rain! 1" to 3" of rain last week will go a long ways to helping the recently planted fall crops and with rain in the forecast this week the first day of summer will start on a good note! Those who still have wheat to cut will be dodging overnight storms tonight, tomorrow night and Thursday night. Some of these storms may be severe with locally heavy rain, so hail and flooding may be an issue. Friday will be dry and then storms return for the weekend.
