

August wedding planned

Kyle Blair, Lisa Wagoner

Lisa Dawn Wagoner and Kyle Blair plan to be married on Aug. 5, at the United Methodist Church in Sharon Springs.

Parents of the couple are Kevin and Colleen Wagoner of Sharon Springs; Mark and Marci Bultje of Sterling, Colo., and Bart Bollers of Merino, Colo.

The bride-to-be is a 2002 graduate of Wallace County High School and a 2005 graduate of Kansas Wesleyan University. She received her Bachelor of Arts degree in accounting with a minor in computers. She is working for Lemke, Feis, and Company in Brighton, Colo. Her grandparents are Stan and Ramona Shaw and Wilfred and Alice Wagoner of Jennings. Carol Shaw of Selden is her great-grandmother.

Her fiancé graduated from Merino High School in 2001 and graduated in 2005 from Kansas Wesleyan University. He received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Education, K-12, and is working for the Brighton School District. His grandparents are Kermit and Caren Carr of Frametown, W. Va., and Dale and Kathy Colerick of Torrington, Wyo.

Family plans reunion

Descendants of James Fenton McGee (1865-1942) and his wife, Mary Susan Payne McGee (1865-1944), plan to be in Oberlin on Saturday, July 1, for a family reunion at the Old Bohemian Hall at the Last Indian Raid Museum.

Among those planning to attend will be David and Hilda McGee, Oberlin; his son, Mike and Sharon McGee, Houston; and his daughters, Kathy Thonhoff, Salida, Colo., and Patricia Horning, Wichita, along with many of their married children and grandchildren. David's sister, Enid Foland, and her daughter, Lynette Donaldson of Almena, and Oral and Doris Brunk of Lyons also plan to be here.

Sharon (Beach) McGee said she has been working on the genealogy of the McGee family and among ancestral surnames are: McGee, Corcoran, Tyrrell, Wade, Payne, Olinger, Williams, Plumb, Hanchett, and Medearis, all of whom had connections to Decatur County.

The family welcomes friends and extended family members to drop by from 2 to 4 p.m. on July 1 at the hall.

Delegate attends convention

Pat Wright of Chapter BH of Oberlin was among more than 250 delegates at the 104th annual convention of the Kansas Chapter of PEO from June 9 to 11 in Great Bend. The theme was "Star Lives Brighten the World."

Five projects sponsored by the international organization include the PEO educational loan fund, a revolving loan fund to assist women with low-interest loans; Cottey College; the PEO International Peace Scholarship Fund, which provides scholarships for international students to pursue graduate study in the U.S. and Canada; the PEO program for continuing education, which provides grants to women who need to resume their studies; and PEO Scholar Awards, for women in the U.S. and Canada pursuing advanced degrees or engaged in advanced study and research.

The state group sponsors Sunflower Grants, one-time awards to any Kansas resident who needs financial assistance, and Kansas Cottey College Scholarships, which provides scholarships for women who attend the college. Anyone interested in any of these scholarships should contact Mrs. Wright or any PEO member for details.

Among former Oberlin residents attending the convention were Jean Rumble, Great Bend; Pat Dixon, Wichita; Carol Weibert, Manhattan; Paula Bainter, Ellsworth; and Helen Riepl, Cimarron.

Neighbors donate bears

The Oberlin Camp of the Royal Neighbors held a Teddy Bear tea at the Oberlin Medical Arts Clinic meeting room on June 1 with 19 members and guests present, including several from the McCook Camp.

Ten teddy bears, furnished by Royal Neighbors headquarters, were presented to Lynn Doeden, administrator of the Decatur County Hospital, and Suzanne Ahlberg, director of nursing. The bears will be given to children in the hospital.

Tea and cookies were served and a social hour followed. The next meeting will be July 14 at the Golden Age Center.
